

LC3 Mission in Focus: Dick & Kathy Page, SOAR

What a privilege it is to take SOAR's Baskets of Hope project to very needy children in Russia, Abkhazia, Ukraine, and Moldova during their Easter season. Easter, celebrated May 5, is the most significant religious holiday in these countries. Our teams will share the Good News of Jesus and distribute gift-filled baskets and Bibles in places like Ukrainian war zones & orphanages. We thank God for partners in each country who help prepare Baskets of Hope and follow up with the children.

In late April SOAR will assist our Abkhazian partners with a youth Bible conference. God is doing a great work through these quarterly youth conferences with many finding Christ and others deepening their walk with Him!

Thank you so much for your financial support, prayers and love for us and SOAR. We pray you have a most blessed Easter season, joyfully celebrating the resurrection of our Lord!

Please pray with us:

- Baskets of Hope: God will prepare the hearts of the children who will hear the Gospel message; protection for partners, especially those traveling to Ukraine.
- Stuff a Stocking: Follow up with children and adults who had never heard the Gospel.
- Please pray for our Abkhazian partners Roma & Alyona and Yura & Wendy who will teach and lead the youth conference April 26-27.
- Please pray for more staff at SOAR.

A STORY OF THE IMPACT OF PRAYER LAURA DEVINE

God has given me the gift of believing that prayer works and a strong desire to pray with other people. When I pray Scripture out loud with other people I feel such joy, so close to Jesus. I know He hears us, and our praying makes a difference. God has taught me that if it makes a difference when I pray, I must also believe it makes a difference when I don't pray; what is God not doing because I didn't ask?

When I was young, even as a Christian, I did not have this excitement about prayer. My prayer journey started over 30 years ago when in a hard marriage. There was nothing else I could do and no one else I could go to except God. I prayed regularly for my husband and children-regularly, not every day and not perfectly. While God did not miraculously heal that marriage, He changed me. He softened me, and I grew closer to Him. I don't think I could have survived the years I was alone after my husband left and the children moved out without His presence through prayer.

"I know He hears us, and our praying makes a difference"

In different seasons of my life prayer has looked different. Currently, one area in which God is calling me to pray is before and during worship service on Sunday mornings. Listening prayer has also become very powerful. I first experienced it three years ago at a Women's Prayer Summit at Cannon Beach. Those four days I prayed with a dozen other women in a way that felt like a symphony. Last year five women from LC3 attended the same prayer summit, and in the Fall we had our LC3 women's Prayer Summit.

It was an intimate experience, both with Christian sisters and with God. I'm very thankful for this precious gift.
