Missions In Focus

Ralph & Meridee Sauers, SIM

Thank you so much for your commitment to prayer and active involvement with your missionaries. We are so humbled by your many kindnesses to us all. Maridee serves with SIM in Member Care. She has had the privilege to come alongside many in the last few months through debriefing these last tumultuous years. Some have had to return for complicated medical reasons. Some have lost family members and are walking through grief. Some have spent decades on the field and, due to retirement, must now learn to once again live in a very different US. It has been a privilege to serve them, to listen to them, and to be present as they seek healing. Thank you for making this possible. Ralph continues to serve in several roles, particularly in walking with short-term workers returning from service as they process the long-term impact of their service.

Prayer Requests:

- Wisdom for Maridee and her team as they walk with servants through crises experienced because of their ministries
- Ralph as he helps short-term servants evaluate how God wants to use their service with long-term impact through serving their local churches in the US and remaining open to God's leading for long-term, cross-cultural Gospel engagement
- Continued growth of the Tamajaq church as well as much fruit from the various Gospel-sharing ministries of Tamajaq believers
- That God would fully capture Luke's and Sara's (our adult children) hearts and minds and for our 10-month-old granddaughter (Olivia) to come to know, love, and want to serve Jesus with full abandon!
- That we can find balance in ministry with SIM and the care we provide for Ralph's mom (almost 90) and Sara & Olivia
