MISSION IN FOCUS: Aaron & Jully Bullock, Malawi

God is moving quickly as we prepare for our move to Zomba, Malawi. We are so excited for our family trip to Malawi later this month. This will be a special “mini missions” trip, where our boys will get to experience the culture and ministry firsthand before we launch into full-time ministry in August. We are also looking forward to practicing our Chichewa language, which we have been learning over the past few months.

We recently hosted a luncheon for over 145 people and are praising God that we are currently at 81% of our monthly support-raising goal. We have seen great momentum over the last two months. This is truly an amazing time! As the time draws closer, we are eager to join the College Ministry team as additional leaders and support, discipling the next generation of leaders in Malawi.

Prayer Requests

- Upcoming trip: February 19–March 13. Please pray for safe flights, protection, and that our boys (Aaron Jr. and Elliot) adjust well to the new environment.
- Opportunities to engage with college students in Malawi during our February visit.
- That we would be 100% supported by May.

FAITH, FAMILY, FELLOWSHIP

Alyssa Moore

Our Military Community Group has had a meaningful impact on my life. One of the things I love most is the smaller setting. I’m not very outgoing when I arrive somewhere new—I tend to observe quietly and take things in. Stepping into this group, however, made it easier to connect with people who genuinely love the Lord, and that has been such a gift.

It’s been refreshing to build friendships with others who understand both the military lifestyle and share a desire to grow more like Jesus. Doing life alongside believers matters deeply to me. I know how lonely it can feel to attend church week after week without truly knowing anyone. Community group changed that for me—it replaced isolation with connection.

Community group reminds me of Mary Poppins’ bag—there’s always more inside than you expect. It has been a place to give encouragement and receive it, a place to grow as we dig into God’s Word, a group of friends who have become family, a prayer army, and a safe space for meaningful conversations that go far beyond Sunday morning in the lobby.

"Community group changed that for me - it replaced isolation with connection."

I’m incredibly grateful for our short time at JBLM and for the people God placed in our path to link arms with. As we move to Oklahoma, there will definitely be an LC3 Military Community Group-shaped hole in my heart. But I trust the Lord—He is faithful, and He won’t leave that space empty for long.
