MISSION IN FOCUS

Jeff & Deanne Boesel, One Challenge International

This month is the first month of the next phase of life and ministry! Jeff will continue to represent One Challenge International (OC) at conferences for 2026 (only five conferences as opposed to the usual 10) and Deanne will aid in the transition from her department, Member Care, to the new care concept, Member Services.

The future looks full of catching up on projects, both personal and ministry related. Jeff will continue writing books and music and Deanne will keep her heart connected with our OC workers around the world, but on her own schedule. Time together and with family will be a priority along with personally visiting as many of our support team as possible.

Thank you, LC3, for many years of prayer and financial support, enabling us to serve so many and spread the Gospel around the world.

RESCUING & CELEBRATING AT THE CHIKONDI INFANT HOME

A Ministry of The Passion Center for Children in Malawi, an LC3 Ministry Partner

Meet the newest addition to the Passion family: Chisomo, which means "Grace" in Chewa.

She was named by the nurses at the hospital when this beautiful baby was found abandoned in a toilet and rescued by someone who heard her crying. She was brought to the hospital, where the staff reached out to Passion Center at first for formula and diapers.

[They] wanted us to take her into the Chikondi Infant Home when she was discharged.

It was when our nurse took those items to the hospital she was made aware that the Zomba government workers wanted to ask us to take her into the Chikondi Infant Home when the hospital discharged her. What an honor to be trusted by city officials for such a role!

Chisomo is just a few weeks old, but we can't wait to watch her grow up surrounded by love. We thank God for the events that led to her rescue. She makes the 11th infant at Chikondi, and we can see we need a larger place and one that is also our own. Praise God that He is allowing us to join Him in rescuing Chisomo and hopefully many more through the Chikodi Infant Home.
