

LC3 Mission in Focus: Tyler & Jessica Mallett, SIM Niger

Greetings! The month of Ramadan is finishing up as I write this update. It is the beginning of hot season here in Niger and it is hard to see the Muslim people going without water during the long hot days. Their commitment to their religion, although misguided, is a compelling reminder of the discipline that is needed in my walk with the Lord. When asked if I'm fasting, it has been an opportunity to explain that Jesus has already bought our salvation and, thought He doesn't demand a fast, we are welcome to fast as an act of worship and submission when we feel so compelled.

SIMAIR has become a vital travel link with the deteriorating security situation in Niger. Although we are limited to flying only to our two hospitals, we are busy flying the many people who generously give of their time and resources to come and volunteer at our hospitals.

Prayer Requests:

- Muslims would see an attractive beauty in the freedom and love that a relationship with Jesus brings compared to the legalism of Islam.
- Limitations on SIMAIR lifted so we can fly to all locations in Niger and not only to our two hospitals.
- Our family relationships, both nuclear and within the mission community. Getting along with people is hard sometimes and it's made even harder when living in difficult circumstances. Pray that we would conduct ourselves with grace and love and that each of us would live up to our God given roles.
- For wisdom as we plan our furlough for some time in 2024-2025.

A STORY OF OHANA TRICIA KNACK

I've had the pleasure of being a youth leader since September 2022, walking with the Class of 2026 girls through all four years of high school with Alison Carlson. It is beautiful and inspiring to see how God is working through these young ladies - and us leaders - in this ministry!

In our first meeting together, we chose some ground rules for how we would treat each other, a name for the group, and the "vibe" we wanted for ourselves. It all came together beautifully: we call ourselves Ohana, the Hawaiian word for family.

The girls are growing in authentic faith as we meet each Tuesday. They are eager to share about their week: struggles, trials, praises, and hopes. As we become more comfortable with each other, we become more vulnerable and share deeply. We love praying for each other through the celebrations and the challenges of life. Through it all, God receives more and more glory.

We also enjoy serving together. We recently arranged a sewing day with Stitching Sisters to learn to make pillowcases which were then donated to Mary Bridge Children's Hospital in Tacoma. It was touching for all of us to come together and be a blessing to the children. Along the way, we built and nurtured intergenerational relationships and had a great time together.

It is my joy to serve in this ministry and to be encouraged and blessed by these sweet girls.
