MISSION IN FOCUS: David & Julie Ayer - Kigoma, Tanzania

We have seen the goodness and glory of God, and we are grateful to testify to our growing faith and love for the Lord Jesus Christ!

This past year, we've continued our monthly outreach alongside our National Partners. Through a Sickle Cell Testing and Treatment Clinic, God has given us access to two communities where we demonstrate the love of Jesus by caring for both physical and spiritual needs. We currently serve more than 120 patients living with Sickle Cell Disease.

God has also opened doors for nine discipleship groups, pastoral training, women's and children's ministry, and community cinema outreaches featuring the Jesus film. We have witnessed people set free from oppression and transformed as they begin new life in Christ.

Through our "One Set Free" girls ministry, we have access to secondary schools throughout the Kigoma region. We encourage young women by teaching them about their identity and value in Christ, health and hygiene, and by providing reusable sanitary supplies that help them remain in school.

We glorify God for His powerful love that sets people free. It is a privilege to serve Him, and we are deeply thankful for your partnership, your love for Jesus, and your commitment to His Kingdom. We continue to trust God for His protection and restoring work in the lives of the precious people He has called us to serve.

May His Kingdom come and on earth as it is in heaven. Thank you, LC3 family. We love you and thank God for each of you!

August 8 & 9

SURROUNDED BY FAMILY Tristan Persons

For the past 14 years, I've had the privilege of being married to my husband who is in the Army. This life has taken us on quite a journey, and we've moved six times, learning to adapt to new places and new seasons. While I grew up in church, there was a time in my life when hurt caused me to step away from my faith community. For several years, church no longer felt like a place where I belonged.

Everything changed when the Army brought our family to Joint Base Lewis-McChord. Deep down, I knew something in my life had to change, and I realized that only Jesus could bring the healing and purpose I was searching for. I started attending church faithfully each week and eventually joined a Bible study.

That decision changed my life. Through Bible study, I became involved in Stitching Sisters and MomCo. These ministries welcomed me with open arms and surrounded me with women who encouraged me, prayed for me, and pointed me toward Christ. They helped me grow in my faith in ways I never expected and reminded me of the beauty of genuine Christian community.

We've now been in Washington for four years—the longest we've lived anywhere during our marriage. Surprisingly, this has become the first place that has truly felt like home since I left Alabama. Home isn't just a place on a map; it's where God plants you, grows you, and surrounds you with people who become family.

Looking back, I can clearly see God's hand in every step of our journey. What once felt like another military assignment was actually part of His perfect plan. I know He brought us to Washington through the Army for a reason, and I am incredibly grateful that His plan led us here, where He restored my faith, gave me community, and reminded me that He is always faithful.
