MISSION IN FOCUS

WAYNE CRAIG, EVERY MAN A WARRIOR, AFRICA

I recently returned home from meeting with my leaders in 11 of our countries. We are incredibly grateful for the continued blessings the Lord is pouring out on the ministry work in Africa. The Lord is providing so many opportunities to grow the work, helping men become the godly men, husbands, and fathers He designed them to be. We are seeing God expand this work across more than 22 countries in Africa, with new growth in both prisons and universities.

The year 2025 is proving to be pivotal for leadership development. We are focusing on training three regional EMAW directors, and collegiate ministry leaders in four countries, and expanding our prison ministry into seven new countries.

Thank you for your prayers and support, which enable us to join the Lord in His vineyard. The fruit of this ministry in the lives of men also has a direct and positive impact on their wives and children.

Prayer Requests:

- Ongoing translation process of our books into Arabic, Kinyarwanda, and Luganda
- New countries in startup process: Sierra Leone, Gabon, Chad, Madagascar, Namibia, South Africa, and Togo.
- New countries launching collegiate and prison ministries
- We in leadership will follow the Holy Spirit as He leads, guides and directs all the work in Africa.

GROWING TOGETHER IN CHRIST

LC3 YOUNG ADULTS (AGES 18-28)

This summer, the LC3 Young Adults group has been reading and praying through the book of Daniel. Each week, we've gathered to honor Christ through fellowship, study, prayer—and yes, plenty of fun along the way.

We asked the group to reflect on what God has been teaching them over these past few months. Here's what they shared:

"I have grown in my ability to dissect passages in the Bible and ask questions about it."

"I have grown in my ability to connect with others in a small group and a church community."

"I am gaining a deeper knowledge of God's Word through relationships built in this group."

"We're reviewing tough-to-understand topics in Daniel, and breaking them down into practical, personal application for both now and in the future."

"My prayer life is growing because I'm practicing asking God for things, and praising Him for big & little wins in other people's lives week by week."

"The group is helping me build a community in a new place and creating space for deeper discussions about God that you don't get during church services. While I am still growing in my faith, I believe the group helped me establish a better habit on prayer and making time to connect with God."

When asked what others should know about Young Adults, one member put it simply:

"It's a place where you can pray together, read God's Word, share struggles, and ask questions. It's an encouraging space—plus, there's always free food!"
