Emmanuel Lutheran Church

Welcome to Worship

Here are a few things we'd like you to know...

Guests in Worship—Each week, we have the opportunity to welcome new people to our fellowship. While ushers have the important job of helping guests to find seats and sharing information, we all play a role in embracing and welcoming guests to Emmanuel. Please look for new faces and extend a helping hand whenever possible. Also, encourage guests to visit the Connections Counter in Ebenezer Hall.

Children in Worship—The presence of children at Emmanuel is a great blessing and the worship service can be a wonderful opportunity to teach them about God's love. Please bring children forward during the distribution of Holy Communion for a personal blessing, and help them to participate in the responses and prayers throughout the service. Age appropriate Children's Bulletins are available on the tables located at the back of the church. If a child becomes restless or disruptive during the service, a Church Nursery for children three years of age and younger is located in the lower level hall just down the stairs near the northwest entrance to the church. If you need help finding the Church Nursery, please ask one of our ushers who will gladly guide you.

Prayer Requests—If you have a prayer concern that you would like included in the worship service, please ask an usher for a prayer request card. You may drop the completed card into one of the boxes located at the back of the sanctuary or hand it to an usher.

Special Needs—We offer a number of aids designed to enhance your worship experience including a Hearing Loop, Large Print Bulletins and Printed Copies of Today's Sermon. If any of these items would be helpful to you, please ask one of our ushers who would be delighted to assist you.

The Gathering Time—Each Sunday, after the early service and before Sunday School and Bible Classes begin, we congregate in Ebenezer Hall for The Gathering Time. During this time, members and guests have the opportunity for fellowship together, while enjoying a beverage and donut.

Emmanuel App—The Emmanuel App is a wonderful tool for ministry and will put access to worship resources, devotional helps, congregational information, video announcements, as well as our church calendar at your fingertips. The Emmanuel App can be accessed by going to your app store and searching for "Emmanuel Fort Wayne." Search results will show you the app which features our logo.

The mission of Emmanuel is the mission Christ gave His Church when He said, "go and make disciples of all nations baptizing them in the Name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you" (Matthew 28:19-20). If you are interested in finding out more about Emmanuel, you can contact Pastor Eggold at taeggold@hotmail.com, or Pastor Sheafer at pastordan@emmanuelutheran.org, or call either of us at (260) 423-1369. We would love to talk with you.

“Your Light Has Come”

AS WE GATHER

Israel's fate seemed dark in Isaiah's day, but he provided a vision of the future: God would shed on them His glory and light, bright enough to attract other nations with their wealth and treasures. Likewise, until it dawned on Paul, God had sent the Messiah only to Israel. But Paul's ministry was to bring to light for everyone the mystery of Christ, that the Gentiles be partakers in the Gospel. The Magi saw a physical light in a certain portion of the sky and realized they should find the King it announced. And now our light has come, the light of God's love in Christ shining in our hearts. Today is a day to celebrate that God has left no one out of the Gospel message. We thank God and tell one another and all we meet, “Your light has come.”

THE OPENING HYMN: “Rise Shine, You People”

Hymn 825

THE PRESENTATION OF PRAYER REQUESTS

THE INVOCATION

Leader: In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION (Luke 1:49-51, 54; Psalm 25:6-7)

Leader: Arise, shine, for your light has come.

People: We saw His star when it rose and have come to worship Him.

Pastor: You shall see and be radiant.

People: They rejoiced exceedingly with great joy.

Pastor: They shall bring good news, the praises of the Lord.

People: And they fell down and worshiped Him.

Leader: Our help is in the name of the Lord,
People: who made heaven and earth.

Leader: If You, O Lord, kept a record of sins, O Lord, who could stand?
People: But with You there is forgiveness; therefore You are feared.

Leader: Although God has graciously showered the light of His love on us, we have not responded in lives of total devotion. But because He has graciously promised to forgive, let us go to Him in the name of "Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in Him."

(Silence for reflection and confession)

Leader: Gracious heavenly Father,
People: we confess that we have let the distractions of this world turn our eyes from seeing the true Light. We have not loved You with our whole hearts. Forgive us and renew in us hearts to see, follow, and worship You alone.

Leader: In the mercy of almighty God, our heavenly Father sent His Son to take to His cross all our sins, and His Holy Spirit has graciously shined the light of faith in Christ into our hearts. I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

THE PRAYER OF THE DAY

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us pray. O God, by the leading of a star You made known Your only-begotten Son to the Gentiles. Lead us, who know You by faith, to enjoy in heaven the fullness of Your divine presence; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

People: Amen.

THE FIRST READING: Isaiah 60:1-6

Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. ²For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the Lord will arise upon you, and his glory will be seen upon you. ³And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising. ⁴Lift up your eyes all around, and see; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall be carried on the hip. ⁵Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and exult, because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. ⁶A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall bring good news, the praises of the Lord.

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE SECOND READING: Ephesians 3:1-12

For this reason I, Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles—²assuming that you have heard of the stewardship of God’s grace that was given to me for you, ³how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I have written briefly. ⁴When you read this, you can perceive my insight into the mystery of Christ, ⁵which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit. ⁶This mystery is that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. ⁷Of this gospel I was made a minister according to the gift of God’s grace, which was given me by the working of his power. ⁸To me, though I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, ⁹and to bring to light for everyone what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things, ¹⁰so that through the church the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. ¹¹This was according to the eternal purpose that he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him.

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE CHILDREN’S MESSAGE

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Matthew 2:1-12

Leader: The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 2nd chapter.

People: Glory to You, O Lord!

Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, ²saying, “Where is he who has been born king of the Jews? For we saw his star when it rose and have come to worship him.” ³When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him; ⁴and assembling all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. ⁵They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it is written by the prophet: ⁶“And you, O Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel.”” ⁷Then Herod summoned the wise men secretly and ascertained from them what time the star had appeared. ⁸And he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him, bring me word, that I too may come and worship him.”⁹After listening to the king, they went on their way. And behold, the star that they had seen when it rose went before them until it came to rest over the place where the child was.¹⁰When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy.¹¹And going into the house they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Then, opening their treasures, they offered him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh.¹²And being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed to their own country by another way.

Leader: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to You, O Christ.

THE APOSTLES' CREED (Spoken together) Inside back cover of hymnal
I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE MUSICAL OFFERING

THE PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH

Leader: Let us pray for ourselves, the Church around the world, and all people in their various circumstances. For ourselves, that we thank God as a congregation and in our individual lives for revealing to us that we are all “partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel,” let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For all who minister “according to the gift of God’s grace” that has been given to them, people of faith who are in government, armed forces, local police departments, professional and volunteer caregivers, and workers in the health professions, that they serve those under their care in safety and with wisdom, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For all for whom the mystery of Christ is still hidden, that through the Church here and around the world “the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known” to them, so that they approach God in confident faith for Jesus’ sake, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For those near and dear to us, that they boldly bring their petitions to God in faith and that we open ourselves to be part of the answers that God so graciously provides, let us pray to the Lord.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: For those who have gone before us in faith—the Magi, the writers of the Scriptures, patriarchs, prophets, saints, martyrs, and those who brought the Good News to us, let us give thanks to the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Leader: These and any other things You would have us ask of You, heavenly Father, grant to us for the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, in whose name we pray.

People: Amen.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

During the Lord’s Prayer, the church bell tolls three times to encourage those outside the sanctuary to join with the church in corporate prayer.

THE BENEDICAMUS AND BENEDICTION

Leader: Let us bless the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Leader: The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you. The Lord look upon you with favor and ✠ give you peace.

People: Amen.

Prior to that he served as Principal at Trinity Lutheran High School in Seymour, Indiana. He and his wife, Laurie, live in Seward, Nebraska, with their four children. Ben was born and raised in Hinsdale, Illinois, where he attended Lutheran schools growing up. He is fully committed to the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod doctrine and believes that the church’s mission is “to make disciples and make them stronger.” Ben describes himself as having a “Christ-centered, mission-driven, student-focused attitude” in his approach to Lutheran education. Now, we turn our focus towards praying for Ben and his family as he considers this Call to serve as Principal at ESM. “He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together” (Col. 1:17).

Building Faith in the Family

EPIPHANY

We celebrate Epiphany on January 6—this Thursday. It's also called 12th Night (12 days after Christmas) or Three Kings Day. The word Epiphany comes from a Greek word meaning "realization" or "appearance." On Epiphany we remember when Wise Men or "Three Kings" followed a special star to find the infant Jesus. Their story is found in Matthew 2:1-12. You can read it or watch a YouTube film about it:

- "The Wise Men Matthew 2:1-14" <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=22SMUUMsx0o> (2 minutes)
- "How to Understand the Three Wise Men, Frankincense & Myrrh" (about the Wise Men's gifts) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FYw4SFAXPWY> (3 1/2 minutes)

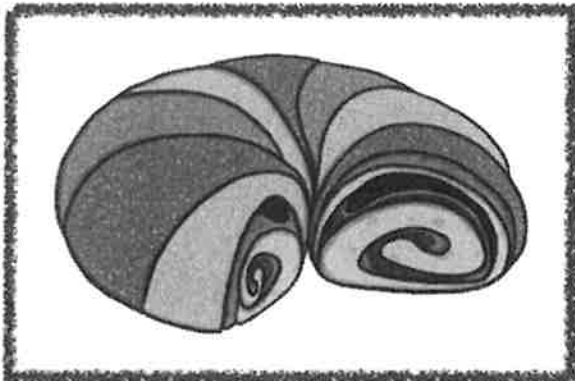

20 + C + M + B + 22

CHALKING THE DOOR BLESSING THE HOUSE

The chalking of doors is an ancient Epiphany or new-year practice throughout the world, though it is not well-known in the United States. It's a great way to dedicate our year to God from its very beginning, asking His blessing on our homes and on all who live or visit there.

Take any color chalk and write the following above the entrance of your home: 20 + C + M + B + 22. The letters have two meanings. They represent initials of the names often given to the Magi — Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar — who came to see Jesus. But they're also abbreviations of a Latin phrase, Christus mansionem benedicat: "May Christ bless the house." The "+" signs represent the cross, and the "20" at the beginning and "22" at the end mark the year. In other words, the chalking acts as a request for Christ to bless the home and invites Him to stay with those who live there throughout the entire year.

KING CAKE

The king cake got its start in the Middle Ages. It's named for the biblical kings or wise men, and some legends say that the cake helps "to draw the kings" to the Nativity. A bean (now often a tiny plastic baby) representing the baby Jesus, is hidden in the cake. Whoever finds it in their slice becomes king/queen for the day. The cake is trimmed in gold, green, and purple: gold for power, green for faith, purple for justice. The circular shape symbolizes the unity of faiths.

Ingredients for an easy King Cake

- 2 cans store-bought cinnamon rolls (Pillsbury Flaky Cinnamon Rolls with Butter Cream Icing work well)
- Yellow, green, and purple sugar for dusting
- 1 plastic tiny baby or large lima or butter bean

Instructions

- Preheat oven to 375°F.
- Separate the rolls and, on a large, lightly greased cookie sheet, arrange them on edge sideways and next to each other to form a circle. Press down on cinnamon rolls to flatten them slightly.
- Bake according to package instructions. Let them cool and then frost them with icing that comes with rolls. Sprinkle alternate bands of yellow, green, and purple sugar on the icing and gently tuck the plastic baby or bean up from the bottom into the king cake.

EMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH

We are a caring family of baptized Christians bound together in the forgiveness which God has provided all people through His Son.

This family exists to announce this gift of forgiveness to individuals of all nations and cultures through the preaching of God's Word and the administration of the Sacraments. Emmanuel instructs young and old according to the confessional standard of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, and reaches out through forgiving relationships, working to connect all members of the family through caring friendships.

Emmanuel serves as shepherds of the sheep; seekers of the lost; friends of sinners; and caregivers to the poor, lonely and broken-hearted. It is a family that cares for all people and reaches out to witness to the love and forgiveness found in Jesus Christ.

Emmanuel Worship Services are designed to share God's love and forgiveness through the ministry of Word and Sacrament. We offer a variety of worship styles and we encourage you to worship in the liturgical style that best meets your needs.

Saturday Evening Divine Service—This service offers a contemporary setting and is held on Saturdays at 5:00 p.m.

 For Christ goes with us all the way—
 Today, tomorrow, ev'ry day!
 His love is never ending!
 Sing out! Ring out! Jubilation! Exultation!
 Tell the story! Great is He, the King of Glory!

6 What joy to know, when life is past,
 The Lord we love is first and last,
 The end and the beginning!
 He will one day, oh, glorious grace,
 Transport us to that happy place
 Beyond all tears and sinning!
 Amen! Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!
 Crown of gladness! We are yearning
 For the day of Your returning!
