BUILDING FAITH IN THE CITY

“A Savior Has Been Born to You”

AS WE GATHER

We often see Christmas as a time for us to “go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us” (Luke 2:15). Yet, Christmas is not about our going to God, it is about His coming to us in the person of our Savior, Jesus. Now, in awe of His great mercy and grace, we are able to go and proclaim the news of God’s peace coming to earth.

THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN: “Once in Royal David’s City” Hymn 376
(Choir sings verse 1)

THE INVOCATION

Leader: In the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.
People: Amen.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Leader: When all was still and it was midnight, Your almighty Word, O Lord, descended from the royal throne.

People: The virgin bears a Son; His name is Jesus, for He has come to save His people from their sins.

Leader: Come, let us unburden our hearts at His invitation and confess our sins to God our Father.

(Silence for reflection and confession)

Leader: Most merciful God,

People: we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your present and eternal punishment. For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.

Leader: "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord" (Luke 2:11). Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Leader: His is the name of peace—given not as the world gives, but only as He can give—who forgives our sins and reconciles us to the Father and through Him to each other. Peace be with you.

People: And also with you. (Please be seated)

THE COLLECT

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us pray:

People: O God, You made this most holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light. Grant that, as we have known the mysteries of that Light on earth, we may also come to the fullness of His joys in heaven; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

THE CAROL: "Where Shepherds Lately Kneled"

Hymn 369

THE BIRTH OF JESUS

(Luke 2:1-7)

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria. And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; because he was of the house and lineage of David: To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

THE CAROL: "O Little Town of Bethlehem"
(Women sing vs. 2; Men sing vs. 3)

Hymn 361

THE SHEPHERDS AND THE ANGELS

(Luke 2:8-14)

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them: "Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you: You shall find the baby wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger."

THE ARIOSO: Luke 2:13

Caroline Eber, soloist

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying:

THE CHORUS: Luke 2:14

Choir

Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth, good will toward men.

This chorus is from part one of Handel's Messiah, which contains prophecies and accounts of Christ's birth. This chorus is preceded by a series of recitatives and ariosos (short songs) for soloists. These solos are used for narratives or dramatic moments in the Messiah.

THE SHEPHERDS GO TO THE MANGER

(Luke 2:15-20)

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

(Please stand, as you are able)

THE CHRISTMAS CREED (Spoken together)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, who sent His Son as my Savior on Christmas Day.

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, announced by the angels, worshipped by the wisemen, who lived to suffer, die, and rise again, to free us from sin, death and the power of the devil.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, who has brought me to faith in the Christ of Christmas and by whose continuous work in my heart, I am ever led to lay before the feet of Christ the treasures of my love and live under Him as my King, both now and forevermore. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH

Leader: We come to You, O Lord, remembering how You gave us the unmistakable sign of Your love by sending Your only Son to be born of a virgin in our own flesh and blood. Hear us, then, for the sake of Christ, as we pray for Your Church, for all people according to their needs, and for ourselves. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Leader: We pray for Your church, O Lord, that it may be the sign of Christ to the world through Your Word proclaimed and Holy Sacraments given in Your name. Make Your Church a place of welcome where everyone is invited to know the Lord and rejoice in His gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Leader: We recall before You the many for whom this night is no different than any other night, those who have not heard the good news the angels sang and the shepherds heard. Use us to share with others the Gospel of Jesus Christ that we may speak hope and life in His name. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Leader: We pray for ourselves and our celebration of our Savior's birth, that the mystery of the Word made flesh may be central in all we say and do. Bless our family celebrations, those who travel, and our sharing of gifts in remembrance of Your gift of Jesus Christ. Make us mindful of those in poverty and need, the lonely and sorrowful, and guide us to use Your abundant gifts to touch their lives with joy. Lord, in Your mercy,

People: hear our prayer.

Leader: These and all things useful to us and profitable to our salvation, we pray You to grant us, O Lord, for the sake of and in the name of our Savior, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

People: Amen.

+ THE SERVICE OF THE SACRAMENT +

Leader: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

Leader: It is truly good, right, and salutary that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord; for in the mystery of the Word made flesh You have given us a new revelation of Your glory that, seeing You in the person of Your Son, we may know and love those things which are not seen. Therefore, with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious name, evermore praising You and singing:

THE DISTRIBUTION OF HOLY COMMUNION (Served at the communion rail)

When Jesus said, "This is My Body...This is My Blood," He really meant it. As Lutherans, we believe in the real bodily presence of Christ in the Sacrament, not merely in a figurative or symbolic sense. This means that Jesus' body and blood are actually present in the bread and wine received in Holy Communion. In this meal our faith is strengthened and forgiveness is assured. This gift is an act of God's love, which we don't deserve, cannot explain, and don't even fully understand. We humbly believe it. It is a request of our congregation that anyone who wishes to commune with us would share this faith. If you are not receiving the Lord's Supper today but desire a blessing, approach the Pastor with your arms crossed over your heart. The individual cups located in the center of each tray contain non-alcoholic wine for those having that medical need. Individually packaged gluten-free communion wafers are available. Please ask the Communion Assistant if you have this dietary need.
