

UPCOMING AT HOPE

Inside Out ~ In this sermon series, we will be exploring Hope's core values-- the values that shape the decisions we make and the type of community we are together. We will look at how these values play out in our personal lives and why they matter for the work God has called us to do as a church.

Featured Resource ~ Looking for a good summer read? Get a copy of Everybody, Always by Bob Goff at the Connect Desk! This book is our featured resource for this sermon series. A study guide is also available online or at the Connect Desk.

Glen Allen ~ We are planning our newest campus launch for September 8 at Short Pump Middle School! For more information and ways to get involved, email campus pastor Oldson Duclos at oduclos@hopecentral.com

The Book on Love ~ Join us July 11-13 for a three-part class providing clear and concise teaching on what the Bible says about marriage. This course is open to married (or soon-to-be married) couples, and is led by Hope pastors and ministry staff. Sign up at hopecentral.com/the-book-on-love

It's Personal ~ If you want to make difference in the life of a kid, it has to be personal. Stop by the It's Personal display today to find out how you can serve in Hope Kids and tell us who made it personal for you! Join the team at hopecentral.com/serve

Power Up Camp ~ Hope is hosting a 4-day camp experience for children with special needs from August 6-9! We need 30+ volunteers to be small group leaders, buddies, and more. For more information, email Naomi at nbrubaker@hopecentral.com
