

Hope That Changes Everything

Luke 24:1-12

Easter offers us...

- A _____ hope for the _____. (1-4)

- A _____ hope for the _____. (5-8)

- A _____ hope for the _____. (9-12)

QUESTIONS FOR FURTHER DISCUSSION:

Note: We are encouraging groups to meet virtually during this time of social distancing through Facetime, Google Hangouts, or Zoom.

1. Check in with others in your group. Have each person share a highlight and a challenge from the past week.
2. Read Luke 12:1-12. What jumps out at you from this passage?
3. In verses 6-8, the women remember some promises that Jesus made to them. What are some truths about God that you need to remember today?
4. Beginning in verse 9, we see that the most natural response to the incredible news of the resurrection is to tell someone about it. Who is someone that may need to hear the hope that Jesus has defeated death? How can you engage them with that truth?
5. What do you think was going through Peter's mind as he ran to the tomb? What changed for Peter as a result of the resurrection? Do you see those same changes in your life?
6. In verse 11, the disciples dismissed the report from the women as an "idle tale, and they did not believe them." Do you struggle to believe the truth of the resurrection at times? How do you think God responds to your doubting? (If you're curious, read ahead to Luke 24:38-39.)
