2. 1 Samuel 22 describes David's men as "distressed, in debt, and discontented." Do any of these words describe your life right now? If not, is there a time that they did? How has God used these times to transform you? If you are there right now, how do you think God can use this season to change you?
3. How has God used community in your life to help you when you were "in the cave"? Who do you trust to walk with you through pain and difficulty?
