

Living on Target
Deuteronomy 6:4-9, 20-24

• God is calling us to _____.

• God is calling us to _____
_____.

• God is calling us to _____
_____.

QUESTIONS FOR FURTHER REFLECTION:

1. Think of some things that you love. (Could be a place, a hobby, a sports team, etc.) Is there someone who instilled that love in you? How do you think that happened?
2. If you are a parent, what are some characteristics of yourself that you see in your children – both positive and negative? If not, what are some characteristics of your parents that you see in yourself – both positive and negative? How do you think those things got handed down?
3. What “rhythms” are a part of your life right now that you can redeem with intentionality?
4. What would you say is your driving motivation in obedience? “Because God said so,” or because His story has become your story?
5. How do you think you can cultivate a deeper love for God in your own life?
6. Chris said that the trajectory of the Gospel is always inside-out, small-to-great, invisible-to-visible. Do you agree with this statement? Is there any evidence of this reality in your own life?