QUESTIONS FOR FURTHER REFLECTION:

1. What are some areas in your life that you could be “eliminating” that could leave you susceptible to sin?
2. How have you been affected by adultery? What kinds of things did that relationship produce?
3. What are the boundaries in your life that safeguard your heart from wandering into sin? What areas are most exposed? What steps could you take to protect yourself more fully?
4. Who are you accountable to? Who is accountable to you? If the answer to either question is “no one,” who is someone you can connect with in that type of relationship? Will you pursue this? When and how?
5. Read Proverbs 7:6-27. Spend some time thinking through this passage, focusing on verse 25. How is your heart turning toward sin? How are you straying into its path?
