QUESTIONS FOR FURTHER REFLECTION:

1. Who is someone in your past that has had an uncommon influence in your life? How did their character and their decisions impact you?
2. Reread Psalm 126.
3. Can you think of a time that you experienced the blessing of God amidst – or even through – difficulty? Explain.
4. Throughout Ruth, our pastors have talked a lot about the power of “ordinary faithfulness” – doing the “next right thing.” Think about your current season of life; what could ordinary faithfulness look like for you? How might God use that faithfulness to impact those around you?
5. Spend some time praying that God would develop the heart of Christ in you, specifically the characteristics we see in this book. (The perseverance and restored hope of Naomi, the devotion and faithfulness of Ruth, the kindness and generosity of Boaz.)
