1. Can you think of an example of someone loving their enemies and how it impacted others?
2. When faced with conflict, what strategy is most natural to you, fight or flight?
3. Who is a person or group that you would consider your enemy? How might you show love to them?
4. Review the ways that Skin summarized Jesus' teaching on what this love looks like (the "how" from the sermon outline). Which of these comes most natural to you? Which is most challenging?
5. Read Titus 3:3-8. Spend some time thinking specifically about how God has shown you mercy. Then pray for those who are your enemies, and ask that God would give you opportunities to show them love.
