QUESTIONS FOR FURTHER REFLECTION:

1. Matt talked Sunday about the continued consequences of David's sin with Bathsheba and that sin has natural consequences. Can you give examples of seeing the fallout of sin even years after it was committed?
2. When do you feel most drawn toward the way of the world? How do pride and control surface in your life?
3. In the face of terrible circumstances, David exhibits uncommon faith. Why do you think it's so difficult, in times of uncertainty, to trust?
4. In leaders like David and Jesus, we see that an appropriate response to brokenness in the world is to weep. Are there things in your life or in the world have caused you to weep? Are there things that should break your heart but don't?
