QUESTIONS FOR FURTHER REFLECTION:

1. Matt told a story about being hazed in college. Have you ever been part of a hazing ritual? What do you think that produced?
2. Think of a mentor who has made a significant impact on your life. In what ways did this person give you direction, authority, and themselves?
3. Would you say you are faithfully investing in a younger generation? (This applies to more than just physical age.) What steps can you take to pursue this?
4. Are you looking to an “older generation” for guidance? What steps can you take to pursue this?
5. Read Psalm 71:17-18 and think through the following questions.
 - a. In verse 17, the Psalmist remembers how God taught him as a child. Spend some time thanking God for the people who have impacted your spiritual life.
 - b. In verse 17, the natural result of knowing the truth of God is “constantly telling others about it.” Do you naturally speak of the works of God? Why or why not?
 - c. In verse 18, we see that the Psalmist is aging, but that his work isn’t done until he proclaims God’s power to the next generation. Pray that God would instill this same heart in you as you invest in those coming behind you.
