Nehemiah 1: 1-3 (NIV)

1 The words of Nehemiah son of Hakaliah: In the month of Kislev in the twentieth year, while I was in the citadel of Susa, 2 Hanani, one of my brothers, came from Judah with some other men, and I questioned them about the Jewish remnant that had survived the exile, and also about Jerusalem. 3 They said to me, "Those who survived the exile and are back in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire."

Nehemiah 4:6 NIV

"So we rebuilt the wall till all of it reached half its height, for the people worked with all their heart."

Romans 8:28 and we know that all things work together for the good of them that Love the Lord.

Isiah 53:5 He was wounded for our transgressions, bruised for our iniquities, the chastisement of my peace was upon him and with his strips we are healed.

Jeremiah 18:1-6 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord: 2 "Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will let you hear the words." 3 So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was working at his wheel. 4 And the vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to do. 5 Then the word of the Lord came to me: 6 "O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter has done? declares the Lord. Behold, like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel.
