* We are working on our directory. We need you to give the church office your address and phone number the way you want it to be in our directory. If you didn't get to get your picture made for it we can still put you in it. We can either take a picture of you or you can give us one of you. We want you to be in it so please help us get all the information updated. There is a copy of our information on you at either of the Welcome Centers. Please take a look at them if the information is wrong mark it out and put right information on blank page. Thanks *

Where everybody is somebody and Christ is King

Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

Romans 14:19

Our Purpose Statement:

To lead people to Jesus, bring them into the fellowship of the church family, and to guide them to Christ-like maturity in order to glorify God.

Our children's department is growing. We would love to add another play set to our facilities. Would you consider donating to this great cause? Several families have already committed to giving. Thanks for all of your support.

Would you like to work with the cute little ones of our church? We have a need for volunteers to work in the nursery during Morning Worship. If you would like to help please see Cheryl Wysong
