Winson Wagner is sharing with us this morning a word the Lord has given to him for us. Please take the time to tell him and Becky thanks for being here. We are blessed to have them.

I inherited many bags full of cloth scraps from my quilter mother-in-law. I enjoy going through the scraps to pick out pieces for making new quilts. It is a fun challenge to fit the various sized pieces together and sew them into wall hangings, throws, or bed sized quilts. Given the small size of many of the remnants and that I like to hand sew parts of the creations, it can take months, and occasionally over a year, to complete a project. But, with patience and time, eventually the creations are completed.

As I sew pieces of cloth together, I often think of the Lord creating us and molding our lives. He designed us and assembled our bodies. He gave us His Word to instruct us how to live. He made salvation freely available to us through His grace so that by no effort or work of our own, if we accept Him as Savior, we will spend eternity with Him in Heaven.

Stitches may hold my quilting projects together, but it is not our works or deeds but by God's grace that we can live with Him forever.

“For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them.” Ephesians 2:8-10 NASB

“Know that the Lord Himself is God; It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves; We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.” Psalm 100:3 NASB
