It's Baptist Men's Day In celebration of Men Sunday we are having a Men's Choir.
Thanks to all the men who helped out.

When people look at a compass it is pointing north—unless one of the many items that interferes with the normal function of a compass is nearby—then it can point anywhere. When people look at you, where does the example you live each day in your life point them? Does your example point people to the Lord? Or, is your witness interfered with by one of the many undesirable worldly influences?

We should read the Bible so we know God's direction. We should pray for His help to not be led astray by worldly influences and temptations. Keep your focus not on temporary worldly wants, but on the eternal blessings that are coming from accepting Jesus as Savior and living for Him.

“While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.” 2 Corinthians 4:18 NASB
