We need your help with our annual Easter Egg Hunt. It will be April 4th at 1 p.m. We need your help with plastic eggs and candy. If you can help see Cheryl Wysong.

We were getting low on propane thanks to the long cold snap with temps not getting above freezing for many days (and the forecast had days more to come of below freezing and road impassable snow). I'd made an appointment for the propane truck to come during the morning hours but it was now 3 PM and no truck. Concern for our fuel delivery was edging its way into my thoughts; I started watching the road into our place (as if somehow that would help the truck arrive). Finally, at 3:18 PM, as the sun was already starting to get low in the sky, I saw the truck coming over the hill!

I was overjoyed! As the truck pulled up to our tank, throwing on a coat as I ran out the door, I shouted to the driver, "Wow! Am I ever glad to see you!" We weren't going to run out of fuel!

The moment I heard those words come out of my mouth, the thought hit me—I'll shout those words at the second coming of the Lord. My joy and celebrating at the Lord's return will far exceed any joy and happiness for anything—yes, anything--that has happened to us on this earth. Just think, in that moment of His return the trials, sorrows, struggles, disappointments, attacks of this world will go away never to return—replaced by the joys and glory of eternity in Heaven with the Lord!

With the Lord's guidance we should do our best to live so that when others see our witness they will want to know our Jesus as Lord and Savior and then can share in our abundant joy at the second coming of our Lord.

"But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy." 1 Peter 4:13 KJV "And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation." Isaiah 25:9 KJV
