Isaiah 9:6

December 26, 2021 | John Henschen, Lay Pastor

BIG IDEA: Trust in the child born on Christmas Day, who is our eternal Savior and King.

I. The Savior is God (Isaiah 9:6a)

A. "6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross."

- Philippians 2:6-8

*English Standard Version (ESV)

II. The Savior is King (Isaiah 9:6b)

A. "Zeal is an inward heat or fervency of spirit, and love is the flame whence that heat comes."

- Jonathan Edwards

B. "True and False Zeal" (verse 1)

Zeal is that pure and heav'nly flame,
The fire of love supplies;
While that which often bears the name,
Is self in a disguise.

True zeal is merciful and mild,
Can pity and forbear;
The false is headstrong, fierce and wild,
And breathes revenge and war.

While zeal for truth the Christian warms,
He knows the worth of peace;
But self contends for names and forms,
It's party to increase.

- John Newton

III. The King is God (Isaiah 9:6c)

A. 3 Types of Peace

- 1. Peace with Self
- 2. Peace with Others
- 3. Peace with God
