Crave the Pure Milk of the Word v 2

Newborn babies do not need to be coaxed to hunger—they cry for milk. That is how the Christian should hunger. Let us crave the pure doctrine, for the gospel to be plainly and truthfully preached

HOPE

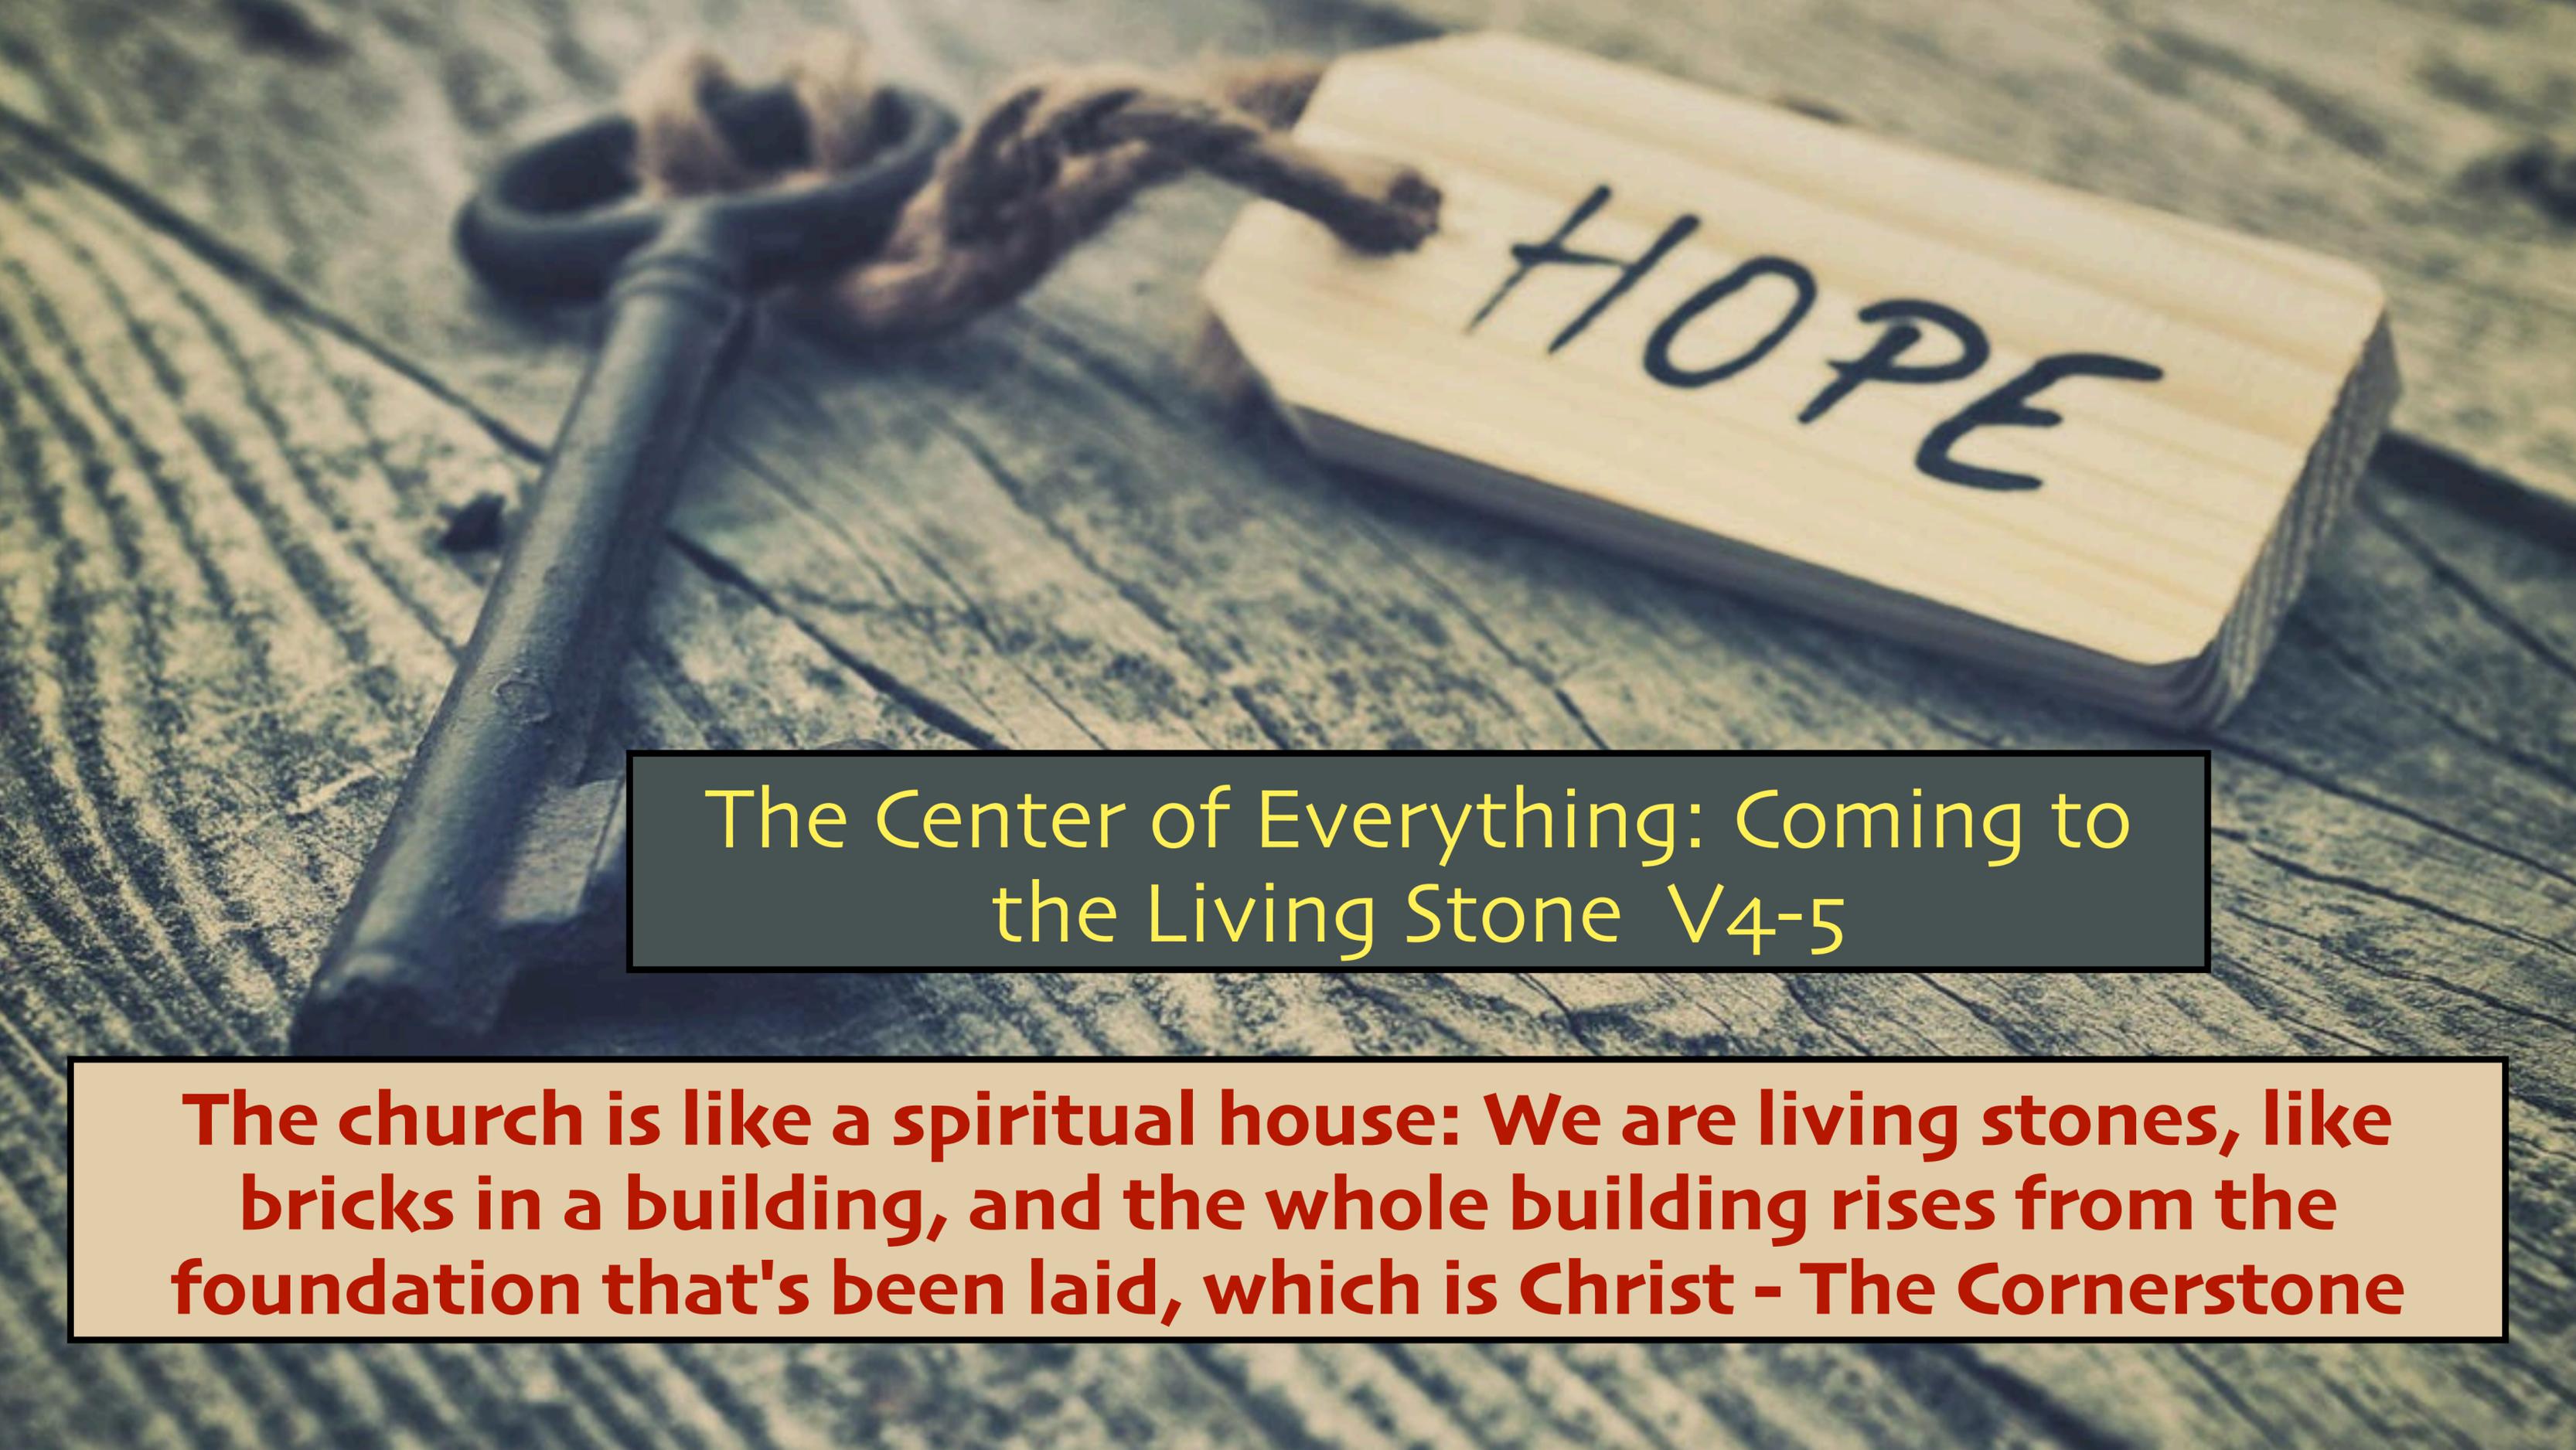

The Reason We Can Crave it is because we have Tasted that the Lord is kind (verse 3)

The Center of Everything: Coming to the Living Stone V4-5

The church is like a spiritual house: We are living stones, like bricks in a building, and the whole building rises from the foundation that's been laid, which is Christ - The Cornerstone
