

Choosing Harmony

1 Peter 3:1-7

Because we are chosen by God and called into His light, we are called to live differently — by living in harmony with God's wise design, but you must make a choice.

A wooden tag with the word "HOPE" written on it in a dark, cursive font. The tag is resting on a wooden surface. To the left of the tag is a dark metal key with a wooden handle. The background is a wooden surface with a visible grain.

HOPE

Question to Consider:
How do we achieve harmony?

Question to Consider:
How do we achieve that harmony?

Harmony Produces Hope in the World

As believers we are to have respect for governing authority

In situations that are not ideal,
we will still honor the Lord
above anyone and anything else.

HOPE

Question to Consider:
How do we achieve that harmony?

Harmony Produces Hope in the World

Harmony Produces Hope in the Workplace

A wooden sign with the word "HOPE" written on it in a dark, cursive font. The sign is resting on a wooden surface. In the background, there is a wooden handle or tool, possibly a shovel or a pickaxe, lying on the same surface. The overall scene is outdoors, with a wooden deck or boardwalk visible.

Question to Consider:
How do we achieve that harmony?

Harmony Produces Hope in the Home

Wives are to honor the Lord in the home by respecting husbands becoming a witness through a strong God given beauty.

Question to Consider:
How do we achieve that harmony?

Harmony Produces Hope in the Home

Husbands are to honor the Lord in the home by respecting wives as they enter her world with consideration, tenderness and understanding.

Responsive Prayer

Pastor: Father, thank You for choosing us and calling us into Your light. Help us this week to live differently — not in our own strength, but by Your grace.

Everyone:

Teach us to walk in Harmony

Teach us to live in Harmony

According to your perfect design

Responsive Prayer

Pastor: May our lives declare Your praises so clearly that others are drawn to the Savior.

Everyone:

In the name of Jesus, who submitted perfectly for us, we pray.

Amen.