Old Testament

אֱמָנָה ('ā·mān):

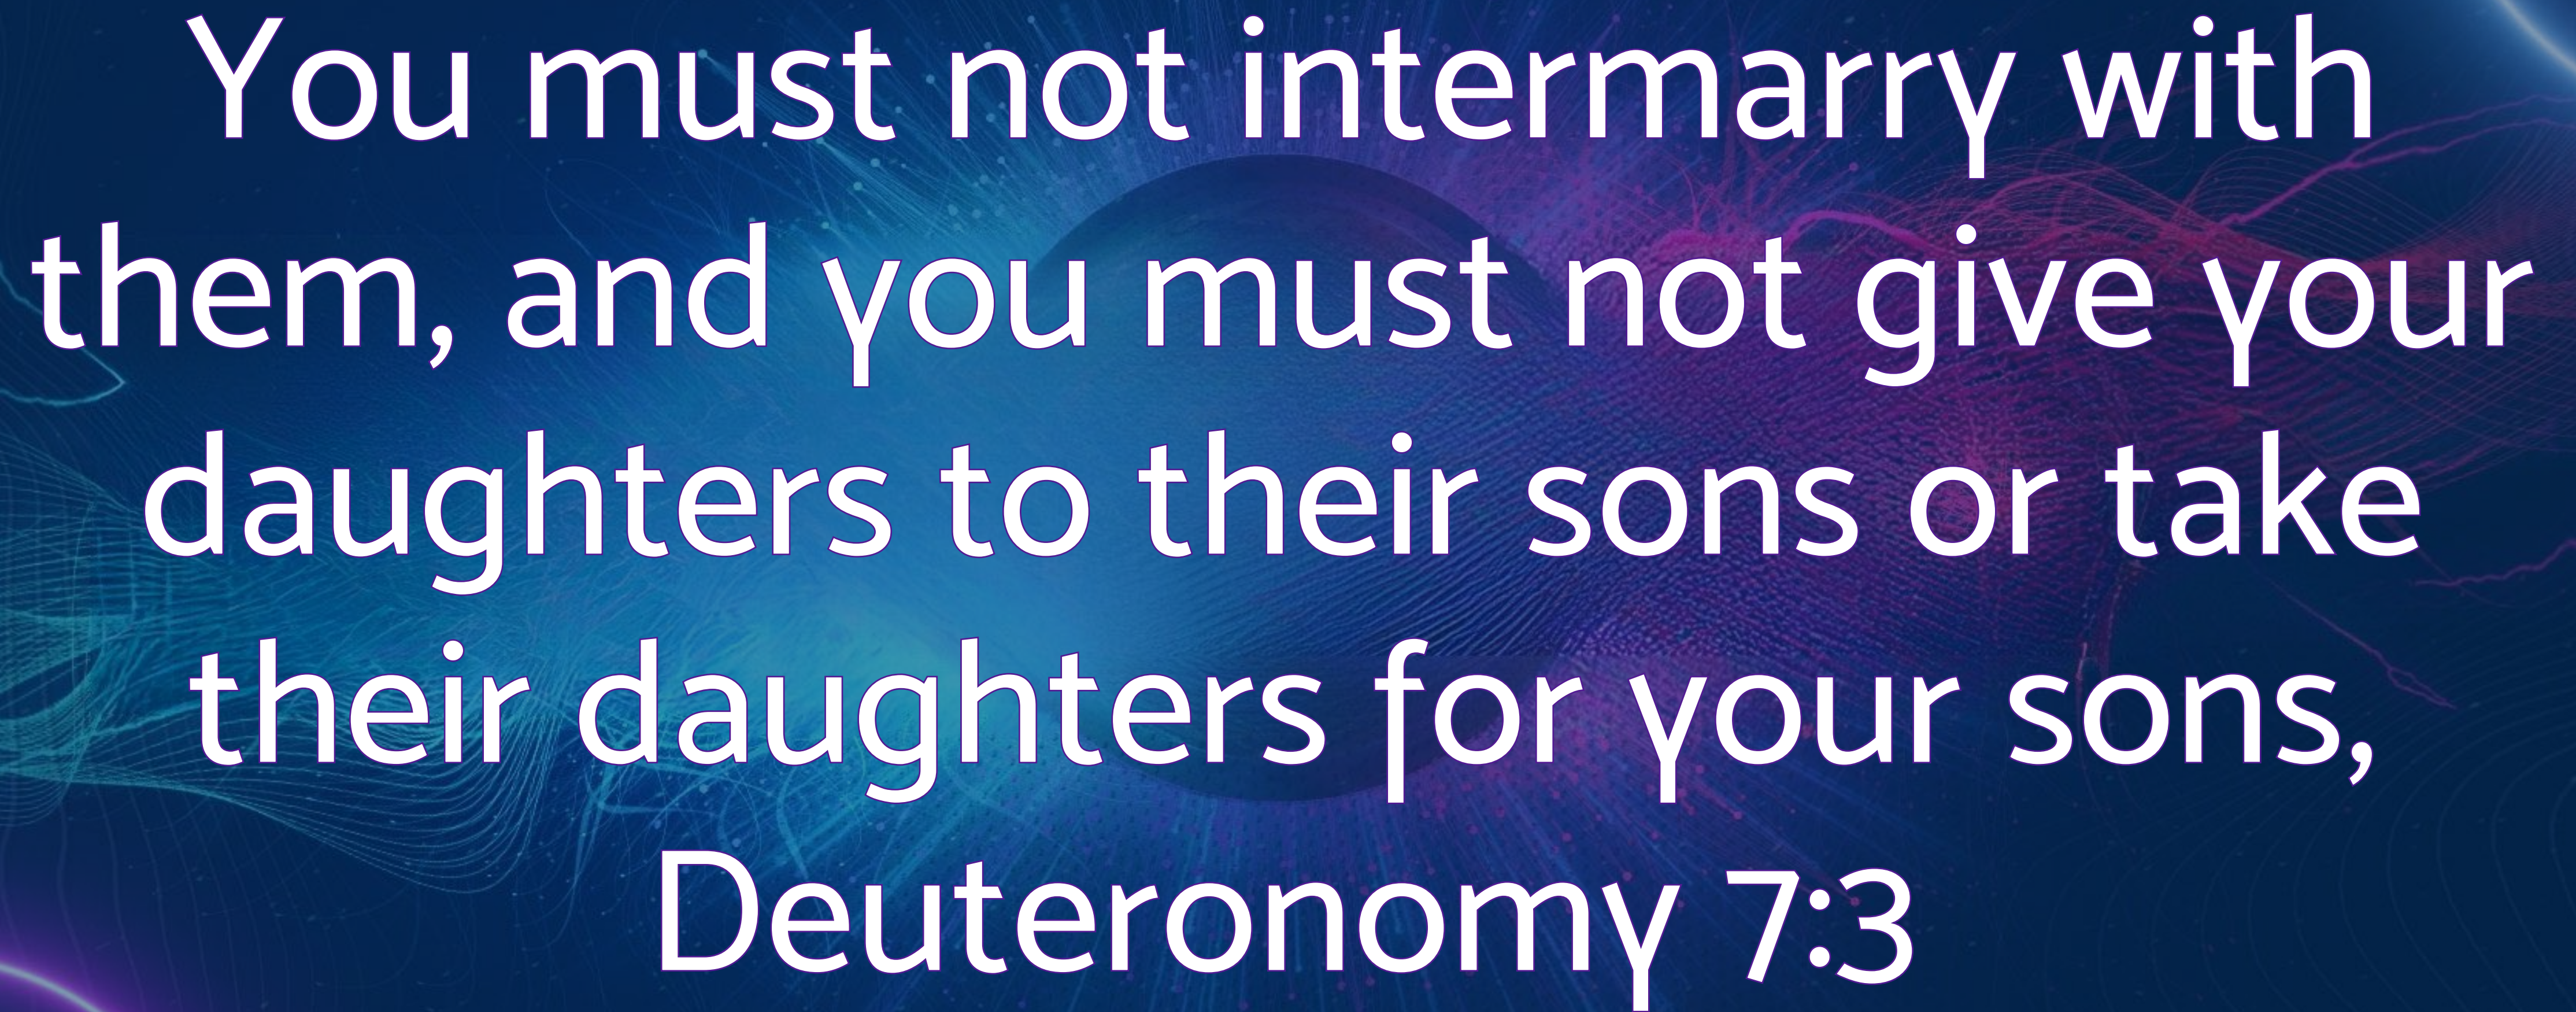

- It is defined as loyalty, constancy, consistency, reliability, dependable, trustworthiness, or steadfastness, in one's affections or allegiance. Deuteronomy 7:1-11; Isaiah 29:13; Matthew 15:8-9
- This word can also connote the close connection between a mother, wet nurse, or nanny and a baby/child. Numbers 11:12; Ruth 4:16; 2 Samuel 4:4

“When the LORD your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess, and he drives out many nations before you—the Hethites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, seven nations more numerous and powerful than you – and when the LORD your God delivers them over to you and you defeat them, you must completely destroy them. Make no treaty with them and show them no mercy.

Deuteronomy 7:1

Deuteronomy 7:2

You must not intermarry with them, and you must not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons,
Deuteronomy 7:3

because they will turn your sons
away from me to worship other gods. Then the LORD's anger will burn against you, and he will swiftly destroy you.

Deuteronomy 7:4

Instead, this is what you are to do
to them: tear down their altars,
smash their sacred pillars, cut down their Asherah poles, and burn their carved images.

Deuteronomy 7:5

For you are a holy people belonging to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you to be his own possession out of all the peoples on the face of the earth.

Deuteronomy 7:6

“The LORD had his heart set on you and chose you, not because you were more numerous than all peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples.

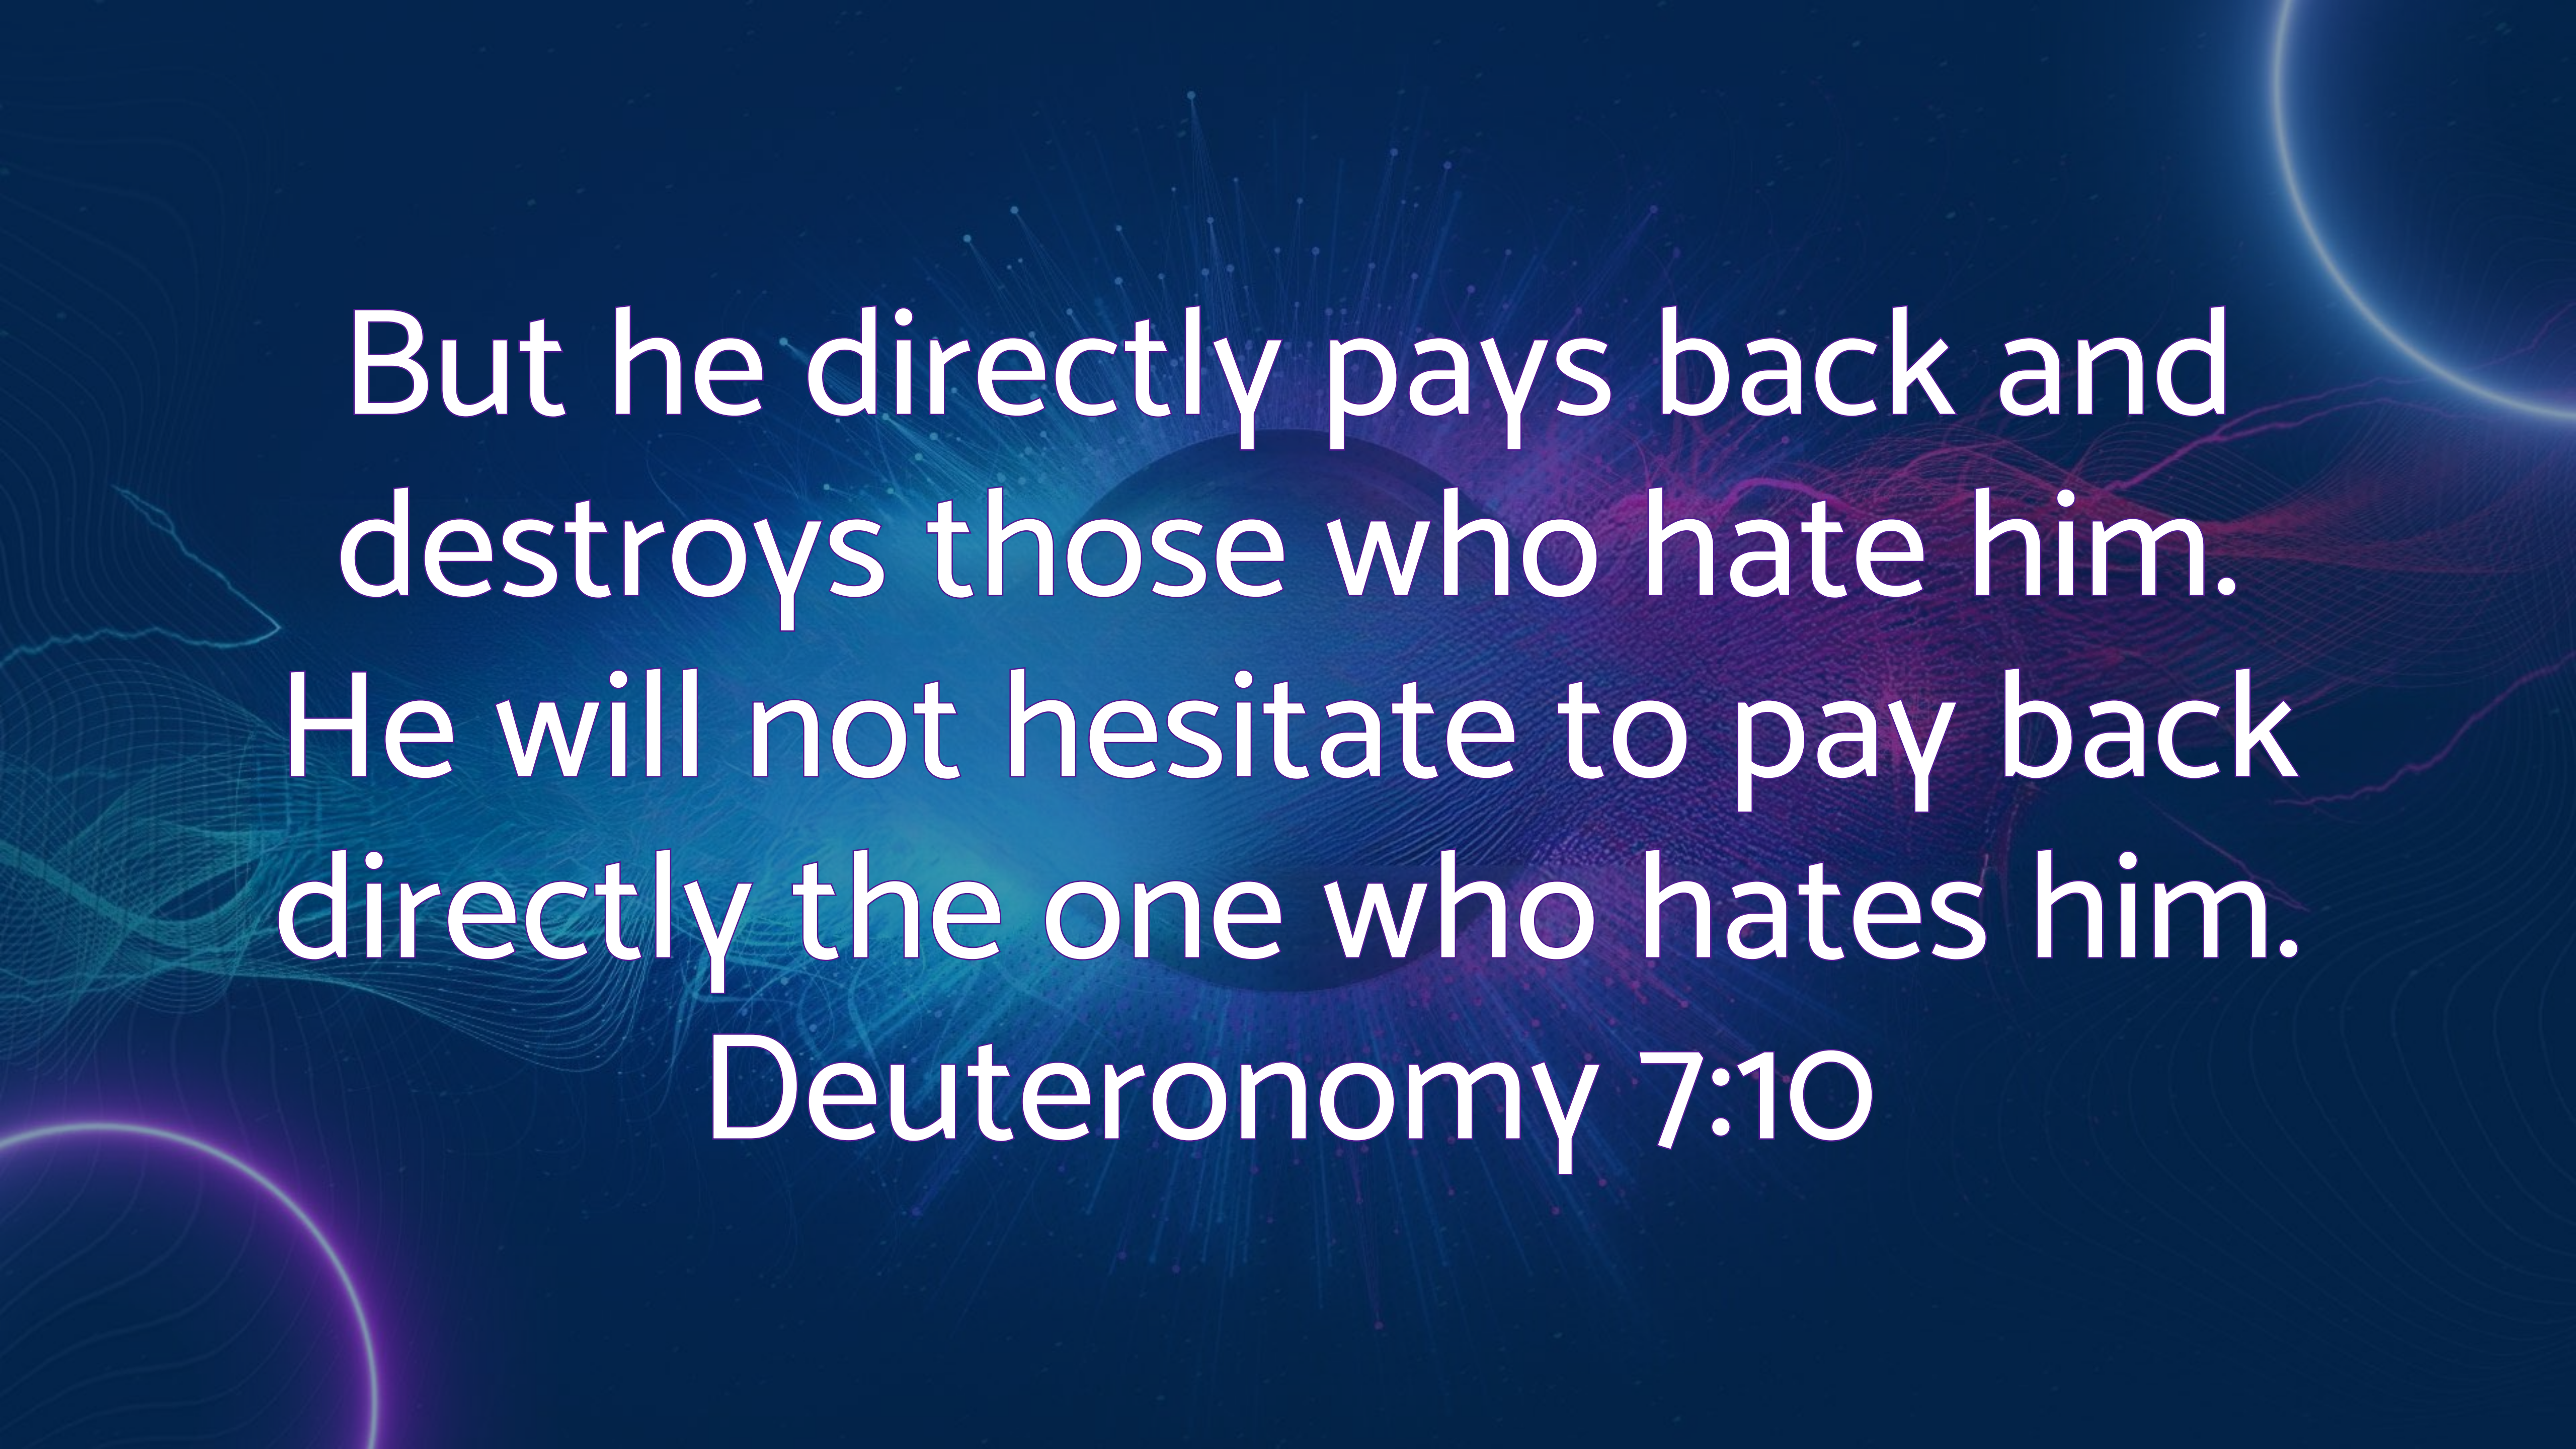

Deuteronomy 7:7

But because the LORD loved you and kept the oath he swore to your ancestors, he brought you out with a strong hand and redeemed you from the place of slavery, from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 7:8

Know that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who keeps his gracious covenant loyalty for a thousand generations with those who love him and keep his commands.

Deuteronomy 7:9

But he directly pays back and destroys those who hate him.
He will not hesitate to pay back directly the one who hates him.

Deuteronomy 7:10

So keep the command—the statutes and ordinances – that I am giving you to follow today.

JOHN CALVIN

(1509-64)

Magisterial Reformer

What John Calvin Did!

- Calvin was born in Noyon, Picardy, France in 1509.
- In the mid-1520s Calvin was proficient in Latin, excelled in philosophy and qualified to study theology in Paris which was his father's plan.
- His father was a lawyer & suddenly changed his mind and insisted that John study law, which he unimpassionedly did for 5-6 years at the University of Orleans.

What John Calvin Did!

- ✚ While bored with law studies, Calvin took great interest in classic philosophy, he learned Greek, later added Hebrew & published his first commentary on Seneca's De Clementia.
- ✚ Calvin heart was set on fire by the news Luther's reformation in Germany. Persecution against protestants broke out in Paris where he was teaching at the time and Calvin sought refuge in Basel, Switzerland.
- ✚ In 1536, he published the landmark text Institutes of the Christian Religion.

What John Calvin Did!

- Calvin believed the church should faithfully mirror the principles laid down in Holy Scripture. In his Ecclesiastical Ordinances he argued that the New Testament taught four orders of ministry: pastors, doctors, elders, and deacons. Around these, the city was organized.
- Pastors conducted the services, preached, administered the Sacraments, and cared for the spiritual welfare of parishioners. In each of the three parish churches, two Sunday services and a catechism class were offered. Every other weekday, a service was held—later on, every day. The Lord's Supper was celebrated quarterly.

What John Calvin Did!

- The doctors, or teachers, lectured in Latin on the Old and New Testaments usually on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. The audience consisted mainly of the older schoolboys and ministers, but anyone could attend.
- In every district, elders kept an eye on spiritual affairs. If they saw that so-and-so was frequently the worse for drink, or that Mr. X beat his wife, or that Mr. Y and Mrs. Z were seeing too much of each other, they admonished them in a brotherly manner. If the behavior didn't cease, they reported the matter to the Consistory, the church's governing body, which would summon the offender. Excommunication was a last resort and would remain in force until the offender repented.

What John Calvin Did!

- ✚ Finally, social welfare was the charge of the deacons. They were the hospital management board, social security executives, and alms-house supervisors. The deacons were so effective, Geneva had no beggars.
- ✚ The system worked so well for so many years that when John Knox visited Geneva in 1554, he wrote a friend that the city “is the most perfect school of Christ that ever was in the earth since the days of the apostles.”

What John Calvin Did!

- ✚ His afflictions were intensified by opposition he sometimes faced. People tried to drown his voice by loud coughing while he preached; others fired guns outside the church. Men set their dogs on him. There were even anonymous threats against his life. He was exiled from Geneva in 1538 but returned in 1541.
- ✚ During his exile in Strasbourg, Calvin served as pastor & married the widow & mother of two children: Idelette de Bure in 1540-49.

What John Calvin Did!

- ✦ John & Idelette tried to have children of their own, but each time tragedy touched. The first child, a boy, was born, prematurely and died soon after. Their second child, a girl, was born but suffered from fever & soon died. Their third baby, a boy, was born stillborn. To say that they were devastated is an understatement. Calvin's opponents rubbed their tragedies in his face, asserting that Calvin's inability to sire children to carry on his name was God's rebuke of the Reformer's life and ministry.

What John Calvin Did!

- ✚ Calvin drove himself beyond his body's limits. When he could not walk the couple of hundred yards to church, he was carried in a chair to preach. When the doctor forbade him to go out in the winter air to the lecture room, he crowded the audience into his bedroom and gave lectures there. Calvin's sermons, lectures and writings shaped Western Civilization in terms of democracy, capitalism, theology, education, social welfare, and individual excellence.
- ✚ He died on May 27, 1564

What John Calvin Said!

- ✠ Nothing is more to God than His own truth.
- ✠ God is not to be separated from His Word.

What John Calvin Said!

- ✦ As soon as men depart even in the smallest degree from God's Word, then cannot preach anything but falsehoods, vanities, imposters, errors, and deceits.
- ✦ No one then ought to be deemed a sound teacher, but he who speaks from God's mouth.

What John Calvin Said!

- ✿ “If I should climb up into the pulpit without having designed to look at a book and frivolously imagine, ‘Ah well! when I get there God will give me enough to talk about,’ and I do not condescend to read, or to think about what I ought to declare, and I come here without carefully pondering how I must apply the Holy Scripture to the edification of the people—well, then I should be a cock-sure charlatan and God would put me to confusion in my audaciousness.”

What John Calvin Preached!

- ✠ During his three-year ministry in Strasbourg (1538-1541), Calvin preached through the Gospel of John and Romans entirely. Upon his return to Geneva in 1541, he preached through much of the New Testament. Beginning in 1549, he preached through:
