

FAITHFUL FAITHFUL MEN

2 Samuel 10

The Amalekite king seeks advice from only his military advisors. As a result, he only gets a limited perspective on the situation. When we make key decisions in life it is best to have “team” of advisors that possess varying backgrounds and experience.

1. Do you have trustworthy confidants in your life?
2. Do you have more than one advisor in key areas of life?
3. Who do you know that is a good advisor in areas such as:
Personal relationships? Business? Finances? Spiritual matters
Sin issues?
4. Who is not only a good advisor but also knows your personal strengths, weaknesses and tendencies?

Plans fail for lack of counsel, but with many advisers they succeed. Proverbs 15:22

No Christian is to operate on an island. I encourage you to know and be known among those who have been tested and proven faithful and among those who have failed and overcome. It is the Lord’s purpose that we sharpen one another.

Many are the plans in a person’s heart, but it is the Lord’s purpose that prevails (Prov. 19:21)
