“Wandering Heart” Lenten Devotional

Available in the Lobby

Lent, the 40 days before Easter, is a time of fasting, repentance, and preparation for Good Friday and Easter. Our theme this year, “Wandering Heart,” follows the stories of Peter, whose life and faith is anything but a straight line. This Lenten Devotional offers commentary, poetry, visual art, and prayer prompts following our theme and Scriptures. Pick one up in the lobby today, to accompany your spiritual practices this Lent.

Message Notes

River of Grace
By Lisle Gwynn Garrity

"Row out further, in to _____."

Fishing for people has to be _____.

It is personal, relational work—deep-water work— where healing and abundance follow experiencing Christ. It's a slow walk with Christ, and it asks everything of us.

Continue the conversation:

- What was the beginning of your faith journey?
- What "boats" or "nets" do you need to leave behind?
- When have you experienced healing or abundance?
