“Wandering Heart” Lenten Devotional

Available in the Lobby

Lent, the 40 days before Easter, is a time of fasting, repentance, and preparation for Good Friday and Easter. Our theme this year, “Wandering Heart,” follows the stories of Peter, whose life and faith is anything but a straight line. This Lenten Devotional offers commentary, poetry, visual art, and prayer prompts following our theme and Scriptures. Pick one up in the lobby today, to accompany your spiritual practices this Lent.

Message Notes

Lift Off
By Nicolette Peñaranda

In the common perception, the sea—the deep water—was the source of evil and _____.

"He alone trampled the waves of the sea." - Job 9:8
"You rule the raging of the sea." - Psalm 89:9

Jesus doesn't calm the sea before _____ Peter.

This is a revealing of Jesus's divinity—a theophany—and it only happens in the midst of chaos.

Continue the conversation:

- What chaos or fears are keeping your attention?
- The solution here is not to calm the chaos, but walk on top of it by faith. What does that mean to you?
- Who is Jesus to you?
