

WEEK 6 | TRANSFORMED ENCOUNTER

Date: May 24, 2026

Verses: John 4:4-26

SERIES INSIGHT

Transformed Encounter is a journey through the Gospel of John revealing that every true encounter with Jesus brings both revelation and transformation—He doesn't just meet people where they are, He changes who they become. This series calls us not just to study Jesus, but to encounter Him personally—so our identity, allegiance, and daily living are reshaped by His presence.

ICEBREAKER

- What was your favorite childhood vacation or trip?
- What is your cellphone wallpaper? Share the story or meaning behind it!

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. In John 4:4–9, Jesus intentionally moves toward someone others avoided.
Where in your life do you tend to avoid people, conversations, or situations that Jesus may actually be calling you to engage with?
How would it look to love people the way Jesus does?
2. Jesus tells the woman about “living water” that truly satisfies (John 4:10–14).
What are some “wells” people commonly return to for satisfaction apart from God?
What false wells are you personally most tempted to drink from when stressed, lonely, disappointed, or exhausted?
3. Jesus exposes the deeper realities of the woman’s life without condemning her (John 4:16–18).
Why is honesty before God such an important part of transformation?
What area of your life is hardest to fully surrender or bring into the light?
4. Jesus says true worshipers worship the Father “in spirit and truth” (John 4:23–24).
What is the difference between merely participating in religious activity and genuinely worshiping God?
What practices help keep your heart engaged with God beyond Sunday gatherings?
5. By the end of the conversation, the woman is no longer hiding—she is encountering Jesus personally.
How does your understanding of Jesus change when you realize He pursues people with grace instead of avoidance?
How could this reshape the way you approach your own failures, shame, or spiritual thirst?

PRAYER
