

Easter 2017

1st Sunday After Easter: Jesus Teaches!

Weekly Summary: Expectations. We all have them. Sometimes when our expectations are not met we can become discouraged and frustrated. That was true for two of Jesus' disciples on Easter Sunday afternoon. They lamented, "We had hoped that he would be the one who would redeem Israel." Their expectations of what Jesus would do were misguided. The reality was, Jesus not only met their expectations but exceeded them. They eventually understood who Jesus really was and what he had accomplished for them. Please join us as we savor the Easter news, and how it influences our expectations.

Points to Ponder

1. Share with others a time in life that was especially good (past or present). Share a time that was especially challenging. What kind of emotions do you think the Emmaus disciples experienced between Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday evening? What Bible passages might Jesus have used to teach them about the Messiah? (See Psalm 22 and 69:21.)
2. “Stay with us.” The disciples found comfort from their discussion with Jesus. How, When, Where do you spend time with Jesus? Share your ways with others to encourage them to do the same. Share your favorite “Go To” passage with your group.
3. Easter Joy. Jesus Lives! Discuss ways that Easter is different from any other kind of earthly celebration we experience in our lives. What aspect of the Easter account gives you the most joy? Share any other take aways from the Emmaus account.

Homework For Next Week: Luke 24:36-49

“Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”
