Do I have good understanding of God's authority in my life? Have you ever had a time in your life when you tried to operate in your own strength outside of God's authority? Moses had Aaron and Hur by his side to hold up his arms in the battle against the Amalekites, who do you have in your life to hold up your arms when you are weary?

In Numbers 14 Joshua and Caleb saw opportunity and the other spies saw destruction. Why are we so prone to have a lack of faith? Is there an area of your life that you want to grow in your faith this year? Share with the group and pray for one another.

Joshua was a servant; do you currently serve at a local church or in the community? Why or why not? How does serving make us more like Christ?

God gives Joshua 3 promises that we also have for our life. We are pioneers, unconquerable and not alone. Do you see yourself as a pioneer in culture? Jesus calls us to be salt and light to the world, what does that look like practically? Have you ever felt like people stood in the way of God's call in your life? Loneliness is the silent killer of leaders, do you feel alone right now? How do we overcome loneliness in our lives?

Joshua is told to speak the law, mediate on the law and observe the law. How does the word of God transform our lives? What is your favorite scripture and why? Memorization is the lowest form of learning and application is the highest form. What scriptures are you applying to your life right now?

Family Discussion: This week talk to your children about loneliness, share with them a time in your life that you felt alone but knew God was with you. Ask them if they have ever experienced or are experiencing a moment of loneliness and pray together.
