REVELATION

The Final Answer - A Glimpse Of Heaven

Part 2 | Revelation 21:9-27; Revelation 22:1-5

INTRODUCTION

As we start to finish up our study of the book of Revelation, I want us to take a close look at the words in chapter 21. Our key passages in this message tell us about everything that will be made new. We've already covered the tribulation, the death, the hardship, and the turmoil that will take place in the last days. But now we get to switch over to talking about heaven, about the new things we will get to experience and enjoy as followers of Jesus as we enter into eternity. Let's dive in.

KEY POINTS

1. The Glimpse Of A Servant's Responsibility

When I talk to you about a servant's responsibility, you could say, "I'm not an angel. I'm not even a pastor." When you give your life to Christ, you are under His Lordship, which means you do His bidding. This means you are to think as He thinks and to do what He does.

We are representatives of Jesus Christ. We are agents of reconciliation. We are to reflect the light of Christ and call men and women, and young people to follow Jesus. That's what a servant does. We must be willing to do whatever He wants. We must stand for Him wherever He wants us to stand. We must be willing to do the good things but also to sometimes stand and deliver the not-so-good things. You see, that's what a messenger does.

2. A Glimpse Of The City From The Outside

- It shines
- It's secure
- It's stable
- It's square
- It's sturdy
- It's stunning
