When we gather our hearts are turned from the shadows of the Father to the Father Himself

As we gather in His presence we should move from amazement to life changing faith

When we gather we teach ourselves as we are sanctified completely that we are to affirm our weaknesses and celebrate the grace of Jesus who is our strength

When we gather together we see the ransomed body and are spurred to serve one another

When we gather together we get to taste eternity and all else is put into perspective

When we gather we remember that oftentimes in His provision for us we are refined even if it doesn't feel like provision, but His goal is complete sanctification and a blameless bride at his coming
