

Flourish

IN YOUR IDENTITY

Patti Height

In three of the four gospels, we read that Jesus asks His disciples, "Who do men say that I am?" But then Jesus gets even more personal and asks His disciples, "Who do you say that I am?"

In each account of Jesus asking His disciples who they believe Him to be, He continues to tell them that if anyone desires to come after Him, (to take on a Christ-like identity) they must deny themselves and take up their own cross.

In this workshop, we will learn how to live our lives in a way that people will know who we are, in Christ Jesus because of who Jesus says we are... our Christ identity!

WHAT DOES THAT LOOK LIKE PRACTICALLY?
LET'S FIND OUT TOGETHER!

- Sister, who are you?
- Who do others say you are?
- Who does Jesus say you are?
- Do you have concerns with what others think of you or how they see you?
- Are you solid in who the Lord says you are?

DISCUSSION POINTS:

- What is identity?
- Identity: My decision or God's intention?
- In whom is your identity?
- What is a worldly identity?
- How to stay strong in your identity when it could get you "canceled"?
- What do you do when your identity is wavering between cultural acceptance and biblical truth?
- How do we flourish and enjoy the identity God has given us in both the physical and spiritual?
- How do we talk to others about their identity while living in a culture that has so many false identities to choose from?
- How do we encourage our children to identify biblically instead of culturally?

“FOR YOU FORMED MY INWARD PARTS; YOU COVERED ME IN MY MOTHER’S WOMB. I WILL PRAISE YOU, FOR I AM FEARFULLY AND WONDERFULLY MADE; MARVELOUS ARE YOUR WORKS, AND THAT MY SOUL KNOWS VERY WELL.”

PSALM 139:13-14
