

In The Garden

I come to the garden alone

While the dew is still on the roses

And the voice I hear falling on my ear

The Son of God discloses

And He walks with me and He talks with me

And He tells me I am His own

And the joy we share as we tarry there

None other has ever known

You will show me the path of life, In Your Presence is fullness of joy, at Your right hand are pleasures forever more. Psalm 16:11

Devotion - ardent, often selfless affection and dedication, as to a person or principle. An act of religious observance or prayer especially when private.

*Streams in the Desert - Mrs. Charles E. Cowman (written in 1925) Excerpt from March 2
Be ready in the morning, and come up...present thyself there to me in the top of the mount. And no man shall come up with thee. Exodus 34:2*

The morning watch is essential. You must not face the day until you have faced God, nor look into the face of others until you have looked into HIS.

You cannot expect to be victorious, if the day begins only in your own strength. Face the work of every day with the influence of a few thoughtful, quiet moments with your heart and God. Do not meet other people, even those of your own home, until you have first met the great Guest and honored Companion of your life —JESUS CHRIST.

Meet Him alone. Meet Him regularly. Meet Him with His open Book of counsel before you; and face the regular and the irregular duties of each day with the influence of His personality definitely controlling your every act.

To mark a page to go back to.

To write a verse to remember, take with you, or share with someone.

“read it - write it - share it - live it!”

To write down a “thought distraction” like, don’t forget to call for an appointment, or don’t forget to get milk. There is always some kind of distraction!

Devotions on the run

- Always have a pocket bible or new testament in your bag
- Keep a small devotional or bible in your car for quick devotion times
- One-Year Bible or devotional in your bathroom
- Bible and devotional on your nightstand
- Have your devotion time while you walk by listening to a study and devote that time to Him

Practice His Presence, He is with you all through your day.

Psalms 91: 1-2 He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High
Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty
I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge, and my fortress, My God, in Him will I trust
Verses 9- 11 Because you have made the Lord, who is my refuge
Even the Most High, your dwelling place
No evil shall befall you, Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling
For He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.

Enter in to His Presence

God created us to have a relationship with Him. Plan a set time with Him. Make it a habit, meet with Him regularly. Acknowledge His Presence and enter in with a thankful heart. Confess any sin, or thing that would hinder your time together, even a distraction. Expect Him to speak to you through the Word, a devotional, or His still small voice. Listen to Him. Write down what He says. Pour out your heart to Him, He knows it all and wants to hear you. And, like Moses, your countenance will change and shine, just by the time you spend with your Father.
