Disciple's Quest

IF YOU CONTINUE IN MY WORD, THEN YOU ARE TRULY DISCIPLES OF MINE. JOHN 8:31

July 19, 2020 Peter and the Preview Luke 9:27 - 36

Main Idea

Jesus was transfigured before Peter, John and James, enabling them to glimpse His divine glory. The occasion visually certified to the trio the accuracy of Peter's declaration that Jesus was "the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Further, it certified the necessity of His redemptive work, and provided assurance that the kingdom will come.

Questions for further contemplation and application after the message:

#1	According to the message, the transfiguration confirmed that Jesus is, as Peter had proclaimed, "the Christ, the Son of the living God." What else did the transfiguration further confirm? How?
#2	Reflecting on Peter's initial triumph and subsequent struggles in our study these last few weeks, what lessons can we learn?
	How does Peter help us to better understand the Lord's grace?
	Should this encourage us in our service? Why?
#3	Define fear.
	Why can Christians live life without fear?
	How can we truly law claim to this promise?
#4	How would you explain the Transfiguration to a new Christian?
