

Disciple's Quest

If you continue in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine.

John 8:31

In the Beginning

The Word Became Flesh

John 1:1-3

Main idea:

Jesus is Eternal God the Son. Any belief in Him that excludes this fact is defective and cannot save.

Outline: No outline today

Questions for further contemplation and application after the message:

#1 How did John know that Jesus was the Christ?

How can we know today?

#2 How would you explain the divinity of Jesus to an unbelieving friend?

What Scripture passages would you use?

#3 What is the significance of Jesus's status as the creator of the universe?

What other New Testament passages describe Him in this role?

#4 What made the "belief" described in John 2:23 – 24 defective and incapable of saving?

#5 What must be believed for salvation?
