Cancer, Liver Cirrhosis	Mob qog noj ntshav, Kab mob siab (Cirrhosis)
Poor Sleep, Early Mortality	Pw tsis tsaug zog, Tuag ntshov
Wasted Life, Misused Money	Lub neej tsis zoo, Siv nyiaj dog dig

2 CORINTHIANS | KAULEETHAUS 5:17

17- "If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation."

1-What chain am I still carrying that Jesus has already broken?

Kuv tseem cia txoj saw hlau twg khi kuv uas Yexus twb muab rhuav lawm?

LIVING IT OUT:

2-Am I living like a slave trying to earn God's approval, or like a son or daughter resting in His love?

Kuv tseem ua neej zoo li ib tug qhev lossis zoo li ib tug tub ntshais uas so hauv Vajtsww txojkev hlub?

LIVING IT OUT:

3-Am I allowing Christ to redefine my identity?

Kuv puas cia Yexus tsim kho dua kuv tus kheej uas yog tus neeg tshiab?

The Master's Touch

Many years ago, an old violin was put up for auction.

It was dusty, scratched, and worn with age.

Not the violin.
The hands that held it.

As the auctioneer held it up, very few people seemed interested.

The bidding started with only a few dollars.

Then an elderly musician quietly walked to the front.

He gently picked up the violin, tightened its strings, and began to play.

Beautiful music filled the room.

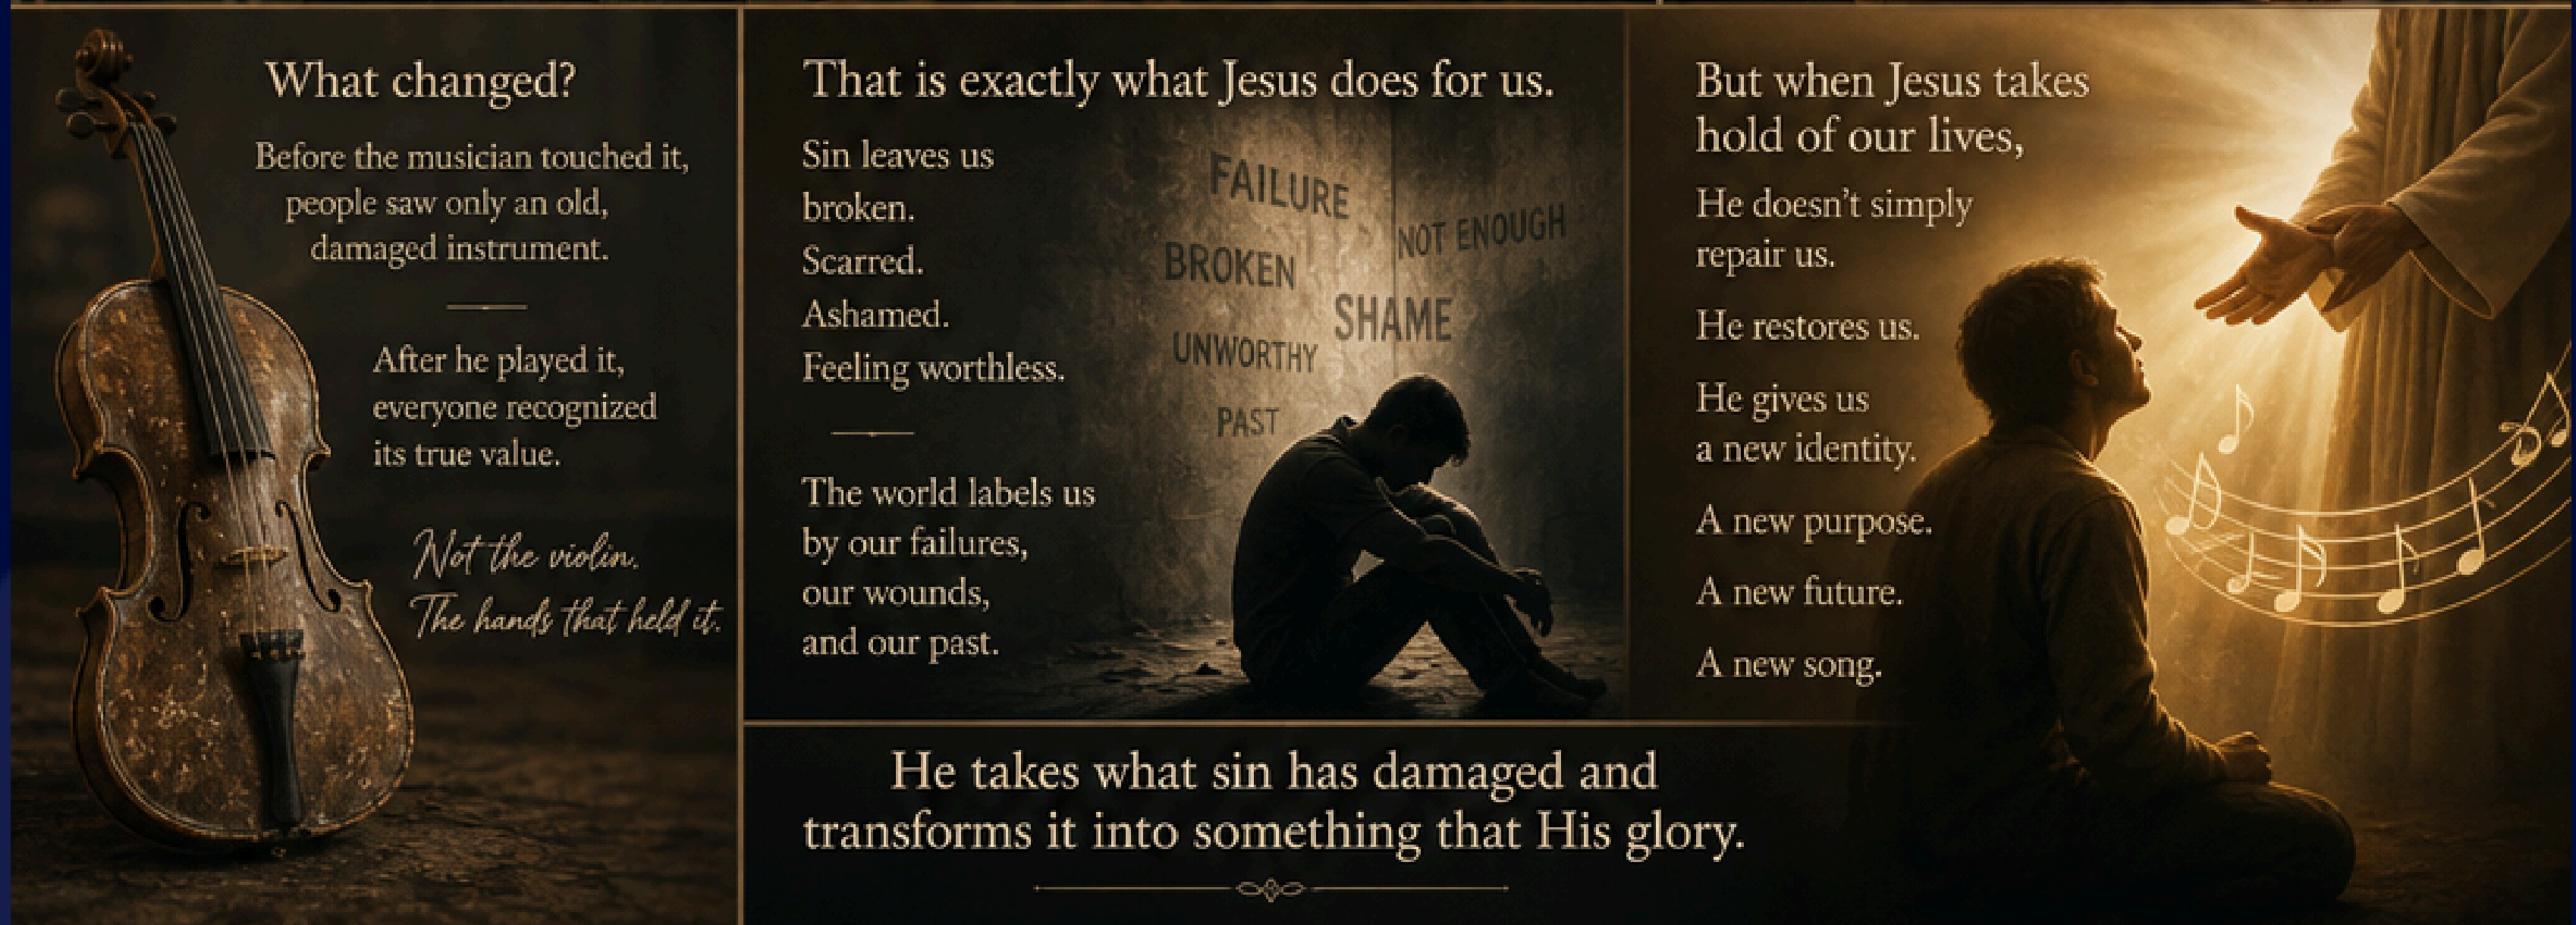

Every person sat in silence as rich, beautiful melodies echoed throughout the hall.

When the music ended, the auctioneer lifted the very same violin once again.

This time, the bidding climbed into the thousands.

$10,000

What changed?

Before the musician touched it,
people saw only an old,
damaged instrument.

After he played it,
everyone recognized
its true value.

*Not the violin.
The hands that held it.*

That is exactly what Jesus does for us.

Sin leaves us
broken.
Scarred.
Ashamed.
Feeling worthless.

The world labels us
by our failures,
our wounds,
and our past.

He takes what sin has damaged and transforms it into something that His glory.

But when Jesus takes hold of our lives,
He doesn't simply repair us.

He restores us.

He gives us
a new identity.

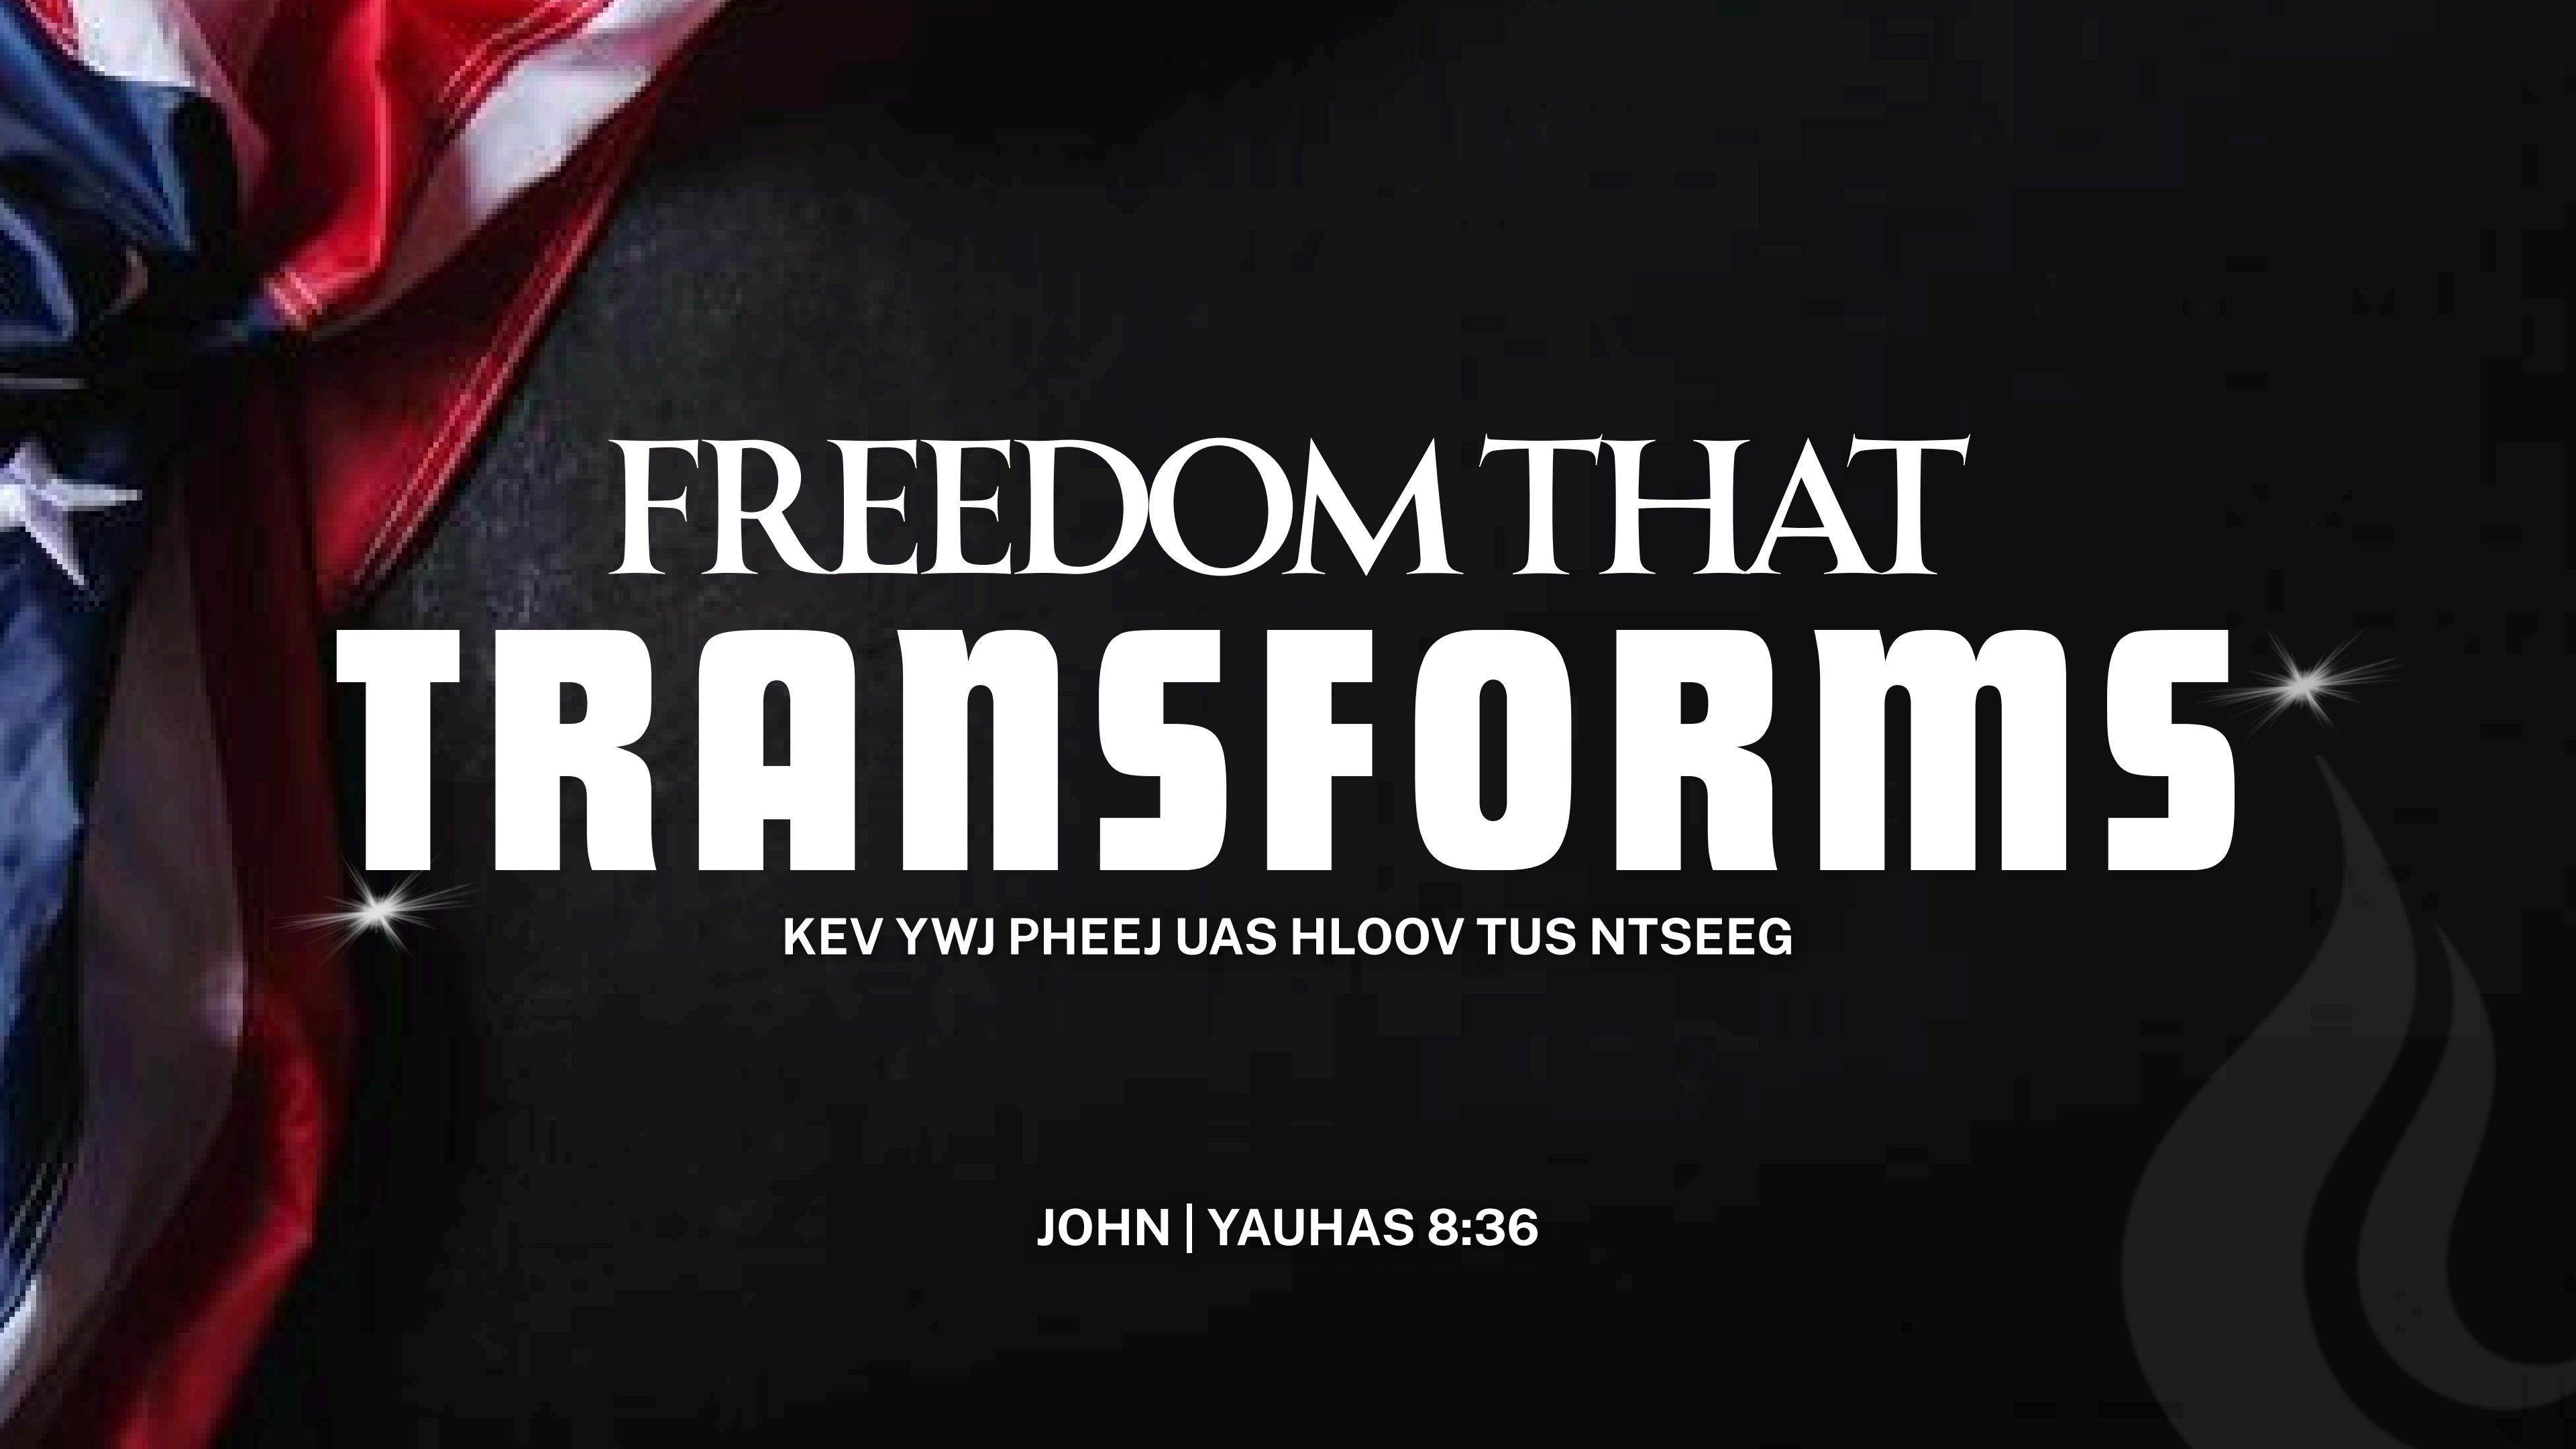

A new purpose.

A new future.

A new song.

The Son:

- Redeems us from the slavery of sin.
- Restores us into the family of God.
- Redefines us with a new identity.
