

Isaiah 61: “The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound.”

- 1) Discuss a time where God used you to do one of these things and answer the question would it have been possible to do in your own power?
- 2) Jesus said in John 14 that even greater things we would do because he goes to the father. Discuss the challenges of this verse as you see it pertaining to your everyday life.
- 3) Set aside specific time to ask the Holy Spirit to fill you to overflowing, asking God to give you his heart and eyes for the lost and broken.

08/26/2018