COMMUNAL READING

ANDREA WATKINS

Worship Leader: Please join me in a reading from Philippians. Whatever gain I have, I count it as loss for the sake of Christ.

Congregation: I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord.

Worship Leader: For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith—that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Congregation: Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own.

Worship Leader: Brothers and sisters, I do not consider that I have made it my own.

Congregation: But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Worship Leader: Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things.

ALL: But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself.

Worship Leader: Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm thus in the Lord, my beloved. This is the word of the Lord!

Congregation: Thanks be to God!

Leader: Please be seated.
