

How God Handles our Failures

2 Samuel 12:7-15

August 18, 2019

United Community Church

Ron Burks, pastor

For all who have failed at some point in your life, God's love and grace forgives your sin, restores you to something better, renews your faith, and redirects your life to pursue His love and presence.

How God Handles Our Failures

when we sin

- ✓ He doesn't disqualify us because we failed
- ✓ He doesn't say our sin is no big deal
- ✓ He offers forgiveness instead of bringing up our failures
- ✓ He is a just God who disciplines us as a consequence of our sin, and we must accept it
- ✓ He encourages us to continue to serve Him because He loves us

How God Handles Our Failures

when someone sins against us

- ✓ He leads us to forgive those who hurt us
- ✓ He invites us to let go of the past
- ✓ He reminds us of His love and forgiveness
- ✓ He replaces the hurt of the present with His blessing in the future