SermonAudio Blurb: What is the Church and the Christian to do in the onslaught of every sort of doctrine and practice flowing through the land? How can we find ourselves standing firm and unmoved, even when we look the fool? This is the burden behind this sermon. As we watch so many denominations, key influential leaders and even the average believer compromise in so many different ways; we must know where to stand and be unmoved. What is the fountain from which this sort of conviction arises? It is the Word of God.
