

Questions & Answers on Kingdom of God

Missio Dei Fellowship

Question 1

If the millennial period is the time when the remaining Jews will come to salvation, will that salvation be exclusive for the Jews only or for Gentile unbelievers as well.

Question 2

What do we do with those who are regenerated during the millennium. Do they die and if so what happens to them (instant resurrection?) Or if they do not die (Instant glorification?)

Question 3

What do we do with the presence of sin in the millennial kingdom? Will our current natures be transformed to Christ likeness that we won't have the capability to sin?

Question 4

In the Millennial time period when Christ reigns, how will sin be dealt with? Jesus sits, as King on his throne. Does He judge sin differently than previously? What does it look like?

Question 5

Are there bible verses that say that we won't have to struggle with sin in the new heavens and the new earth? For instance, is there a verse that says when Christians get their new body, after we die, that we will be without sin like Jesus?

Question 6

Will we recognize and be with our family and friends that are believers in the millennium?

Question 7

Will there be church with the preaching the Bible to unbelievers, and to non-glorified humans during the millennium?

Question 8

At the end of the millennium Satan and all unbelievers will be released for judgment. Is this the final judgment?

Does it include believers? How does this all work out for us?

Question 9

If Jesus was to come back now would we be living out that 1000 years of Jesus ruling? This created a lot of discussion and I am guessing that the confusion comes with the rapture happening first?

