

The Resurrection: It Changes Everything

Matthew 24:13-49

Introduction:

Jesus is the risen King who is victorious over death, recognized by His disciples, validated by Scripture, and enthroned over all creation. That truth changes our faith, theology, and life. The resurrection also changes our practical living. The resurrection isn't just a doctrine to believe, but a truth should change our behavior.

I. The Resurrection of Jesus Changes Our _____ (Luke 24:13-24).

- The truth of the resurrection is not a cold truth to be _____.
- The resurrection is _____ to the gospel message.
- When we share the gospel, talk about the _____, not just the death of Christ.

II. The Resurrection of Jesus Changes Our _____ to God's Word (Luke 24:25-44).

- Study the Word of God Keeping the _____ in Mind.
- Be _____ of the Resurrection _____ Throughout Scripture.

III. The Resurrection of Jesus Changes Our _____ Towards _____ (Luke 24:45-49).

- Repentance and Forgiveness Should Not Be _____ in Our Witnessing.
- Leading People to Christ Should Bring _____ to Our Lives.
- People Still Dying to Hear the _____ and Dying and Going to _____.
- The Gospel of Jesus Christ is for All Nations, Ethnicities, and People Groups.

Conclusion:

Jesus told His disciples that it is our joyous task to proclaim God's offering of repentance and forgiveness through Jesus Christ.

Matthew 28:18-20