

The Last Supper: A Night To Remember

Various Scriptures

The video opens by stating that there will come a day when, for each of us, we will leave this earth and cross over to the “great unknown.” It goes on to say that we, as believers, hold fast to our faith. The question then asked is, “If you knew you had only one night left on this planet, what would you say to your friends and family? What would you want them to remember?”

1. Jesus Would Demonstrate: How To Live _____

So, he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him. John 13:4-5

Earlier in his ministry, Jesus had taught his disciples the following, found in Mark 10.

“Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.” Mark 10:43b-45

2. Jesus Would Instruct: How To Serve _____

He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?” Jesus replied, “You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand.” “No,” said Peter, “You shall never wash my feet.” Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with me.” John 13:6-8

When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. “Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them. “You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord, and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.” John 13:12-15

3. Jesus Would _____: To Love Others As I Have Loved You

“A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples if you love one another.” John 13:34-35

Jesus offered a command for the disciples and us to follow (we, too, are to be his disciples). On this last evening, he would also offer this:

4. Jesus Would _____: A Timeless _____ Of What Was To Come

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take and eat; this is my body.” Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you; I will not drink from this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom." Matthew 26:26-29

Application and Example

Finally...In The Garden: Jesus Would _____ What He _____

When Jesus' followers saw what was going to happen, they said, "Lord, should we strike with our swords?" And one of them struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear. But Jesus answered, "No more of this!" And he touched the man's ear and healed him. Luke 22:49-51
