

Student Guide: 1 Corinthians 11 – God’s Order, God’s Power, God’s Peace

Foundational Truth

The church of the living God does not lack gifting, anointing, or spiritual empowerment. The challenge arises when gifting is disconnected from God’s order.

“God never anoints disorder, and He never blesses rebellion. Heaven is not impressed by ability without authority, nor power without submission.” – 1 Corinthians 14:33

Key Principle:

True apostolic revival comes through submission to God’s authority, not through human excitement or sensationalism.

I. Spiritual Headship

Foundational Text: 1 Corinthians 11:1–5

- Headship is creational, not cultural.
- God established order before the church, culture, or sin (Genesis 1–2).
- Proper alignment releases power, it doesn’t limit it.
- Submission channels God’s power:
  - Christ submits to the Father (John 5:19; 1 Cor 15:28)
  - Man submits to Christ (Eph 5:23)
  - Woman submits within God’s structure (Eph 5:22–24)

“Anything misaligned will eventually lose authority—even if it keeps its volume.”

II. Women and Public Ministry

- Scripture affirms women pray and prophesy in public worship (1 Cor 11:4–5).
- The question is not if women minister, but how ministry operates within God’s order.
- 1 Timothy 2–3 clarifies roles and authority, not gifting:
  - Overseers (ἐπίσκοπος) and shepherds (ποιμαίνω) are defined roles
  - Scripture limits offices, not anointings

“God never pours out His Spirit just to silence His people.”

III. Silence and God's Order

- 1 Corinthians 14 shows silence is situational, not gendered:
  - Tongue-speakers silent if no interpreter (14:28)
  - Prophets silent when another receives revelation (14:30)

Context:

- Corinthian women were disruptive, influenced by false teaching.
- Ephesian false teaching:
  - Sexual activity, childbirth, and women's roles = sinful or defiling
  - Extreme asceticism promoted as path to holiness

Paul's Response:

- Women and childbearing are honorable and redemptive (1 Tim 2:15)
- "Saved" here = kept safe or preserved in God's plan
- Leadership corrections were situational, not universal

IV. Biblical Witness of Women

Women have historically been used by God in powerful roles:

- Disciples of Jesus (Luke 8:1–3)
- Daughters prophesy (Joel 2:28)
- Philip's daughters prophesied (Acts 21:9)
- Phoebe – deacon and minister (Romans 16:1–2)
- Deborah – judge of Israel (Judges 4:4)
- Huldah – prophet to kings (2 Kings 22:14)

"God pours out His Spirit on all flesh—but never without order."

V. Gifting Without Governance

- Corinth was gifted but chaotic: everyone had a hymn, word, or revelation (1 Cor 14:26).
- Paul's correction:

"The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets" (14:32)
- Gifts do not cancel governance.

VI. Head Coverings: Visible Sign of Invisible Truth

- Paul teaches head coverings (or hair) as a symbol of authority and alignment (1 Cor 11:6, 14–15).
- Corinthian context:
  - Veils = modesty, honor, marital faithfulness
  - Uncovered head = potential rebellion or sexual availability
- Principle: symbols communicate spiritual alignment

Historical Practice:

- First 1500+ years: women wore coverings in worship
- Reformation: Reformers still taught coverings
- 20th century: decline due to fashion, cultural change, and feminist movement

Key Principle:

“God gives visible signs to protect invisible authority.”

VII. Authority on Her Head—Because of the Angels

- 1 Cor 11:9–10: Woman created for man, has delegated authority
- Submission positions power properly, it does not remove it

Spiritual Application:

- Women’s prayers, intercession, and alignment strengthen the home and church
- Submission = spiritual protection, honors God’s order, resists demonic attack

VIII. Restoration Through Proper Alignment

- Genesis 3 introduced disorder; Christ restores design (Eph 5:21–23)
- Mutual submission heals the curse; ultimate spiritual responsibility rests with godly male leadership
- Where order is restored:
  - Confusion leaves (1 Cor 14:33)
  - Power flows (Acts 2:1)
  - Peace reigns (Col 3:15)

Spiritual Principle:

- Head coverings, submission, and honoring God's order = both protection and channel for God's power
- Angels recognize and honor order; demons look for broken patterns

“The church cannot afford prayerless women—or irresponsible men.”
