

THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY

“FACING DEATH” // DEUTERONOMY 31:1-8, 14

“Facing Death”

Deuteronomy 31:1-8, 14

1. Death is not an accident- it's a divine appointment.

“Facing Death”

Deuteronomy 31:1-8, 14

1. Death is not an accident- it's a divine appointment.

*“Behold, the days approach when you must die.”
(Verse 14)*

“Facing Death”

Deuteronomy 31:1-8, 14

1. Death is not an accident- it's a divine appointment.

“Behold, the days approach when you must die.”
(Verse 14)

“Lord, my times are in your hands...”
(Psalm 31:15)

“Facing Death”

Deuteronomy 31:1-8, 14

1. Death is not an accident- it's a divine appointment.
2. Death does not end God's work- it continues through others.

“Facing Death”

Deuteronomy 31:1-8, 14

1. Death is not an accident- it's a divine appointment.
2. Death does not end God's work- it continues through others.

Who's your Joshua?

“Facing Death”

Deuteronomy 31:1-8, 14

1. Death is not an accident- it's a divine appointment.
2. Death does not end God's work- it continues through others.
3. Death is not the end- it's merely a transition.

“Facing Death”

Deuteronomy 31:1-8, 14

1. Death is not an accident- it's a divine appointment.
2. Death does not end God's work- it continues through others.
3. Death is not the end- it's merely a transition.

Everyone lives forever somewhere.

“Facing Death”

Deuteronomy 31:1-8, 14

1. Death is not an accident- it's a divine appointment.
2. Death does not end God's work- it continues through others.
3. Death is not the end- it's merely a transition.
4. Death does not have to be feared- but something we anticipate.

“Facing Death”

Deuteronomy 31:1-8, 14

1. Death is not an accident- it's a divine appointment.
2. Death does not end God's work- it continues through others.
3. Death is not the end- it's merely a transition.
4. Death does not have to be feared- but something we anticipate.

Death for the believer is like rising from a nap.

(Deut. 31:16 “lying down”)

THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY

“FACING DEATH” // DEUTERONOMY 31:1-8, 14

Bibliography.

OpenAI. (2025). ChatGPT (<http://chat.openai.com/chat>)

<https://reasonsforhopejesus.com/only-one-life-twill-soon-be-past-by-c-t-studd-1860-1931/>

Lewis, C.S. “The Last Battle” The Chronicles of Narnia, 1950