

THE BOOK OF ACTS

“An Unlikely Conversion”

Acts 9:1-19

Background on Saul

Background on Saul

- A Jew from the tribe of Benjamin

Background on Saul

- A Jew from the tribe of Benjamin
 - Hebrew name (Shaul=“asked of God”)

Background on Saul

- A Jew from the tribe of Benjamin
 - Hebrew name (Shaul="asked of God")
 - More commonly known as Paul

Background on Saul

- A Jew from the tribe of Benjamin
 - Hebrew name (Shaul="asked of God")
 - More commonly known as Paul
- Born in the city of Tarsus, Cilicia

Background on Saul

- A Jew from the tribe of Benjamin
 - Hebrew name (Shaul="asked of God")
 - More commonly known as Paul
- Born in the city of Tarsus, Cilicia
- Educated in Jerusalem under Gamaliel

Background on Saul

- A tent maker by trade

Background on Saul

- A tent maker by trade
- Zealous persecutor of Christians (8:1-3)

Lessons from Saul's Conversion

(Acts 9:1-19)

Lessons from Saul's Conversion

(Acts 9:1-19)

- No one's beyond the reach of a gracious God.

Lessons from Saul's Conversion

(Acts 9:1-19)

- No one's beyond the reach of a gracious God.
- No one's past disqualifies them from future service.

Acts 9:5

(KJV; NKJV)

“...it is hard for you to kick against the goads...”

*See also- Acts 26:14 (ESV)

Bibliography.

Hamrick, Gary. “A Transformed Life” Cornerstone Chapel, 2023

Merida, Tony. “From Terrorist to Evangelist” Christ-Centered Exposition, 2016

<https://www.family-times.net/illustration/Mercy/201565/>

<https://summitchurch.com/GetFile.ashx?Guid=fdd2f881-ac42-43c3-9316-ca1343a77d20>

<https://www.summitrdu.com/wp-content/uploads/sermons/2015/10/12-Acts-9-1-22-Paul.pdf>